

"I am Because We Are"

Memories of Kenya

April 23rd – May 18th

Reception and Artist Presentation

Thursday, May 17th 5:00 – 7:00 pm

Artist Janet Mullen, a Sister of Notre Dame de Namur, spent 20 years ministering to the people of Kenya. This exhibition captures her memories of Kenyan women and their children, as well as Kenyan culture and the effects of globalization. What shines through her work is the strength of the human spirit rising above the concrete realities of poverty, racism and disenfranchisement. Please join us on May 17th at 6 pm for a spirited talk and presentation with the artist.
