Dear Parishioners and Friends,

The illustration on the cover of today's bulletin is taken from the Mainz Gospels, a book containing the four Gospels which was created around 1250 for the cathedral in that Germany city. All of the text of the Gospels was written in gold ink, and over 70 illuminations were painted throughout the volume. The one you are looking at shows John the Baptist in prison, sending two of his disciples to ask Jesus if he is the promised Messiah. In the lower half, we see Jesus telling the disciples to look around them and see the manifestations of his Messianic presence.

Today, as we look around our world we might be tempted to ask the same question. How is the presence of the kingdom of God manifested in a world where there is still so much pain and suffering, hatred and injustice? They are realities that we continue to struggle with because the forces of evil often seem to be more powerful than the forces of good. However, we are a people of faith, people of hope, and we must not allow ourselves to become discouraged or defeated.

A powerful example of this is a recent letter that the leadership of the Franciscans of Holy Name Province sent to the friars. In it, the Provincial Council addressed the mass shooting which took place at an LGBTQ+ nightclub in Colorado Springs in November. Reflecting on Isaiah 11:1-10, the first reading for the First Sunday of Advent, they wrote:

"A prime example of our disconnect from Isaiah's vision is the Colorado Springs shooting at Club Q, a nightclub that welcomes members of the LGBTQ+ community, where five people were murdered and nineteen others were injured by gunshot wounds. No justification exists for this mass shooting and mass murder; yet, it is reasonable to conclude that a prime motive for this crime was the pronounced hatred for LGBTQ+ people prevalent in our country and, at least in part, abetted by long-standing Church teaching. The criminal charges against the individual who was arrested for this act include not only five counts of murder, but also several counts of committing bias-crimes against the human beings in Club Q. As Franciscans, we join with people of good will to condemn these types of 'crimes against humanity.' We recognize and lament the availability and continual misuse of assault rifles and handguns in our country, which harm and kill our brothers and sisters. We resolve to continue to raise our voices in prayer, in conversation, and in efforts to promote legislation that seeks to reduce the means of perpetrating such violence.

"Yet even with such positive efforts guiding our response to this latest act of violence and hatred, we need to do more in order to work more fully with God's grace to promote Isaiah's vision - especially during this Advent time and at this kairos moment in our Church's history when we are invited to let ourselves be guided by the full experience of the Synod and its methodology. Specifically, we need to probe deeper and to recognize that aspects of our Roman Catholic teaching have marginalized, stigmatized, and put forward the immoral view that our brothers and sisters in the LGBTQ+ community are 'inherently disordered' - that they are a 'mistake,' so to speak, in God's creation. What is 'disordered' is this stance, since it violates a basic and repeatedly-stated biblical tenet about creation: that 'God saw what God had made and pronounced it good.' This truth applies to all people regardless of their sexual orientation and expression."

In addition to the letter, the Provincial Council sent a $5,000.00 donation from Holy Name Province to "Inside Out Youth Services," an organization in Colorado Springs, CO, which works with LGBTQ+ youth in educational and advocacy programs. If you wish to make a donation yourself, you can do so at their website insideoutys.org.

In a reflection posted on his Facebook page last week, Bishop Peter Rosazza, retired Auxiliary Bishop of Hartford wrote: "LGBTQ persons deserve to be welcomed and treated with respect with a particular emphasis on gay and transgender youth and their families. They need and deserve the parish's support. We must try to see the face of Christ in them, as he shines forth especially from the most vulnerable."

Messages such as these help us to see more clearly the presence of the Lord in our midst. I pray that all of us may be able to look around and see all the good that Christ's disciples are doing in his name, especially right here in Hartford, and right here at St. Patrick-St. Anthony.

Blessings on your week ahead!

Advent Evening of Reflection

Invitation from our Synod Team...

For almost a year, our parish has been on the Synod Journey at the invitation of Pope Francis. At the heart of this journey has been the Holy Spirit guiding our listening and sharing sessions at our parish and at national and international gatherings for conversation and prayer. Now, as we start this new liturgical year, we venture to consider how our Advent sacred scripture texts reflect our synodal journey together. What awaits us as we gaze upon the central figures of Isaiah, Mary, Joseph, Jesus and the Magi?

Join us on Tuesday, December 13, 2022 from 7:00-8:00 PM for a special evening engaging our imaginations to break open insights to renew, inspire, and lift our hearts to see God's redeeming and healing love at work in our lives, our Church, and our world.

Advent Instruments of Peace

We began this fall semester with a couple of questions as we celebrated the Feast of Saint Francis in early October: "How can we be Instruments of Peace?" and "How do we as a community of faith and as individual faith-filled citizens engage our mind - body- spirit in a response for peace at both the communal and personal levels?" We considered choosing peace as a nonviolent Gospel response to the challenges of today. Next, we stood our ground around the peace pole outside of church with signs every weekend calling for peace. Then we took our message into our neighborhoods with yard signs proclaiming "May Peace Prevail". And so, it seems fitting to conclude this semester with a look to our new liturgical year and its Advent message of peace.

Join us Thursday, December 15 from 7:00-8:00 PM on Zoom as we use Maya Angelou's Christmas Poem, "Amazing Peace", to explore yet again the call and invitation to become instruments of peace.

If the events happening in our local and global communities disturb you, step into this reflective evening time to recover a balance ~ a promise of and a hope for ~ PEACE. Facilitator: Pat Curtis

Haiti Giving Tree

St. Patrick St. Anthony parish and St. Genevieve parish in Zoranje, Haiti have been joined in a covenant relationship since 2005. As a part of this covenant, our parish has provided a hot lunch and teacher salaries for the school. Our Christmas in July fund raiser this past summer met our goals, of ensuring each student has a meal, and every teacher and staff member received a modest increase in salary. Thank you!

Every year, SPSA holds a Giving Tree fund raiser as part of our efforts to support St. Genevieve School. This Advent, our Giving Tree will focus on helping to provide school workbooks and textbooks, and tuition support. We'd like to share this reflection from a Sister Parish committee member:

Thinking back, I remember how my school notebooks and supplies were so personal and important to me. When I was growing up the school supplies and the educational support from my family and community made it possible for me to feel that each new school year was also a new beginning to create and discover.

Although no student is turned away from the St. Genevieve School, our tuition support will help all families in their deep desire to assist in providing a quality education for their children and support their parish school. It gives me great joy to know that I can help give students and parents at St. Genevieve the same sense of beginning that I had, through my giving. I hope you can find the same joy in your giving this Christmas.

The annual tuition for a student is equivalent to $30. US. CLICK or scan the QR Code to make a donation online at our webpage or donate via check (made out to SPSA Church, with "Sister Parish-Giving Tree" in the memo) dropped in the collection basket or mailed to the office. MESI-THANK YOU!

Secular Franciscan Order Meeting

Is God calling you to live a life of love, peace, and holiness in the model of St. Francis of Assisi? Join us for our gathering in the lower level of the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry at St. Patrick-St. Anthony on December 18, 2022 to learn more about the Secular Franciscan Order. We will meet at 2:00 PM to celebrate our annual Christmas Crib devotion to celebrate the birth of Christ.

After all the Masses the weekend of December 17 and 18, the Secular Franciscans will be distributing small packets of birdseed to members of your parish because St. Francis wanted everyone to celebrate the birth of Jesus. One way was to feed the birds, especially at Christmas.

Please accept this gift from the Secular Franciscans and assist your children and grandchildren with this mission.

Volunteer to Provide Dinner at Hartford Warming Center

Looking for an opportunity to feed the hunger? The no freeze shelter in Hartford opens for winter shelter for the homeless on December 1st and once again we will be providing Sunday dinners and Wednesday pasta nights to the clients of the shelter. We still need help with both groceries and Wednesday dinners. CLICK Here or call the church office if interested.

For Wednesdays in December we are looking for people to prepare 2 lbs of either baked ziti, mac & cheese or chili (also served with pasta). Trays can be dropped off cold or frozen. CLICK Here or call the church office if interested.

And finally Christmas Sunday dinner, our plan is to have people drop off pots of stew and Sunday evening around 4:00 PM we will start to combine and reheat. If anyone is available to help that evening or make a pot of stew, a tray of salad or desserts it would be greatly appreciated. CLICK Here or call the church office if interested.

Please don't be shy we need your help in a variety of ways - prayers accepted!

Local Giving Tree: "Wrapping" Up

The last day to return your wrapped and labeled gift was Saturday, December 10 at 6:00 PM.

If, for some reason, it was beyond your control to drop your gifts off prior to today please Call Frances D'Amico at 203-715-6313 AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

We want to thank everyone who took the time to select a gift to give to our local neighbors this year. Your kindness will help to brighten up the holiday of so many people, from those at CCMC to our friends at the House of Bread.

We also want to thank all of our volunteers who make this effort such a success each year. Without your time and talents, it would NOT be the success it is!!

Women Deacons

Late in 1994, Saint Pope John Paul II decreed: "the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and ... this judgment is to be definitively held by all the Church's faithful." Then, in December of 2009, Pope Benedict XVI made some changes to Canon 1009 of the 1983 Code of Canon Law, regarding the diaconate. While Vatican officials maintained that the purpose was to "ease difficulties" in interpreting the role of deacons, the change began to raise some questions. Because the deacon was now to serve the People of God in the "liturgy, the word, and charity," might not a woman be ordained to the diaconate? That question insistently remains to this very day.

In fact, we know that women like Phoebe served as deacons early on, as Paul noted in his Letter to the Romans of the late 50's (Romans 16:1). Phoebe was a recognized "first," but others came along in the First Millennium of the Church: preaching and teaching, serving women at adult Baptisms, caring for other needs of their people, and carrying important documents to other communities. However, by early in the Second Millennium, the number of women deacons died out, due to prejudice against their leadership, the replacement of adult immersion Baptism by infant Baptism, and other societal pressures.

Which brings us to today. Right now, the following question is being persistently raised, here, there, and all over the world: "why not ordain women as deacons?" For example, the Amazonian Synod of October, 2019, insistently raised this issue, since women were already serving their communities in this way. Clearly, voices in this country are not unique in pursuing this possible solution to believers' needs.

To explore these questions and learn more about our historical precedence to ordain women as deacons, please join in the conversation at our Women Deacons series on consecutive Tuesdays, January 17 & 24, 2023. Our parish Synod process gave voice to the desire of women, men, and students for the expansion of leadership roles in the Church. Please plan now to join us in January!

A Frog Hollow Childhood: A Memoir of Hartford by Lynn Davis

Once a child's fun included an interaction with its environment. Davis writes of a time before technology and computers took over. She recreates a nostalgic reminiscence of the 1940s and 1950s for those who lived in them and introduces the times to those who didn't.
