The Pastor's Corner

March 12, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

In the Canticle of the Creatures which St. Francis of Assisi composed near the end of his life, one of the earth's elements which joins in the praise of God is water: "Praised be to You, my Lord, through Sister Water, who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste."

Droughts have become more and more common, not just in far-away places, but closer to home, right here in our own country. Here is what the World Health Organization has to say:

"An estimated 55 million people globally are affected by droughts every year, and they are the most serious hazard to livestock and crops in nearly every part of the world. Drought threatens people's livelihoods, increases the risk of disease and death, and fuels mass migration. Water scarcity impacts 40% of the world's population, and as many as 700 million people are at-risk of being displaced as a result of drought by 2030.

"Rising temperatures caused by climate change are making already dry regions drier and wet regions wetter. In dry regions, this means that when temperatures rise, water evaporates more quickly, and thus increases the risk of drought or prolongs periods of drought. Between 80-90% of all documented disasters from natural hazards during the past 10 years have resulted from floods, droughts, tropical cyclones, heat waves and severe storms."

I mention this in light of the Scriptures we hear this weekend for the Third Sunday of Lent speak about water as a symbol of God's relationship with us.

In the Book of Exodus we hear how the Israelites grumbled and complained to Moses that they were about to die from thirst in the arid wilderness at Meribah, causing them to pose the perennial question: "Is the Lord in our midst or not?" In response, God instructs Moses to strike a rock from which water will gush forth.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus encounters a woman at a well in Sychar, a town in Samaria, where she has come to fetch her daily supply of water. In the conversation that follows, Jesus teaches her that the water she has come to draw from the well will never satisfy her needs:

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

In the Gospel of John we find several instances where Jesus says "I am," such as: "I am the bread of life" (Ch. 6); "I am the light of the world" (Ch. 8); "I am the good shepherd" (Ch. 10); "I am the resurrection and the life" (Ch. 11); "I am the way, the truth, and the life" (Ch. 14); "I am the true vine" (Ch. 15).

In today's Gospel we could interpret Jesus' words to the Samaritan woman as an additional "I am" saying when Jesus speaks of himself as the source of water for eternal life. Just as the human body cannot exist without water, so our spiritual life – our relationship with God – cannot exist without the living water who is Jesus himself. We absolutely need him in order to remain alive, not just here on earth, but for all eternity.

As their conversation continued, Jesus invited the woman to look at her own life – which was far from perfect – in order for her to come to the realization that she was missing the most important element: faith, and the spiritual nourishment she needed to live an authentic and fulfilled life with him as the "savior of the world."

Lent is a wonderful opportunity for us to deepen our relationship with Jesus so that our thirst may be quenched by a deeper faith and trust in him. The "living water" he offers us is his love, mercy and forgiveness which will never run dry.

At the same time, let us not overlook our physical need for water and the fact that our planet is suffering from lack of water. As we become more aware of the damage that is being done to our natural resources through human disregard, it is imperative that we take steps to ensure a healthy environment for the generations who follow us. Sister Water, the precious gift of our Creator, needs our care!

Blessings on your week ahead!

Sister Parish Update:

Greetings from the Sister Parish Committee. We want to start by thanking the St. Patrick-St. Anthony community for its unyielding support of our Covenant.

Over the upcoming weeks you will find excerpts from an update on our Sister Parish here in the bulletin and in the weekly parish-wide email.

You can read the entire update and find additional information about the ministry and how you can help St. Genevieve on our website at <https://spsact.org/our-parish/sister-parish-st-genevieve/>.

Part 1: Haiti is in Free Fall

We thought that the year before couldn't get worse, but it has. 2023 is starting as another very difficult year. Food is hard to come by. What stores are open can't stock much anymore, and what they can is expensive. There's not much gasoline available anywhere. Cholera is spreading. Adults can't find work, or get to work if they're lucky enough to have a job. Children can't safely get to school. Violence is rampant.

Gangs menace the country's port and its people – and not just in Port-au-Prince anymore. Essentially this is the fallout from the assassination of President Jovenel Moise. Since he was killed in 2021, there was a power struggle in this country. A man who has been accused of playing a part in his assassination, Ariel Henry, is now the country's leader. And at the same time, the gang violence that has been a problem for decades in Haiti has now spiraled completely out of control. There are areas of Haiti where the fighting is so intense that thousands have had to flee their homes. And for months now, the main fuel depot and the port in Port-au-Prince have been blockaded by gangs, and the government has been unable to break it.

The U.S. State Department advises Americans not to travel to Haiti. U.S. citizens are advised to depart Haiti now in light of the current security and health situation and "infrastructure challenges". So, it makes sense then that the U.N. is taking calls for intervention seriously.

Against this bleak backdrop, life goes on at St. Genevieve.

Staying Connected As A Community: Realm Database

We are grateful for all of the variety of ways in which people 'belong' to SPSA! Essential to the vibrancy of our community life is communication. One goal in this new year is to maintain our level of communication with all who connect with the services and mission of the Church and the Franciscan Center.

At the heart of staying connected is ensuring we have accurate information in our REALM database. If you are a longtime friend of SPSA, you are already in our database, we just want to make sure your information is accurate and up to date. You will have the opportunity to update your own profile after you receive an email from us entitled: "Welcome to St. Patrick - St. Anthony on Realm!"

If you are new to our community, you can create a profile and input your information to help us stay connected.

Need some help with this? We will have parish staff and some tech savvy volunteers available to help you THIS WEEKEND during Community Sunday! Read more about our Connection Campaign at <https://bit.ly/3YmUpF4>.

Communion Survey

Due to the pandemic, we have not offered both forms of the Eucharist to the congregation since early 2020. For our planning purposes, we would like to know if you would like to receive from the cup during Communion at this time. Please fill out the survey at the right and send into the office or simply go to bit.ly/communionsurvey to access the survey online.

IRIS Cultural Companion Volunteers Needed

Are you interested in helping refugees coming to the Hartford area? Do you enjoy building relationships? IRIS (Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services) is looking for participants in their Cultural Companion program.

Cultural Companions is a wellness program that pairs IRIS clients with volunteers to build friendships through experiential learning, focusing on English practice and shared interests. Cultural companions build rapport by doing activities together, exploring the community, and sharing culture. Companions commit to meeting 2-3 hours per week for 3-6 months. The goals of the program are to reduce isolation and foster community integration and navigation. CC volunteers must be committed to investing in relationships with people who speak little or no English, and who may be struggling with challenges related to mental or physical health, financial stress, social isolation and cultural adjustment.

St. Patrick-St. Anthony will form a team of interested parishioners and facilitate training, registration and coordination.

To learn more, contact Patricia Spring at patamelia50@gmail.com.

THANK YOU from the Clare Gallery Ministry

A huge thank you from the Clare Gallery Ministry for your Backpack Supplies and Gift Card donations. Your generosity filled the room with supplies from toys, books, and educational material to clothing, socks, jackets to diapers and wipes! Our backpacks for immigrant children overflowed with your voluminous donations. Our Confirmation students assembled the backpacks after learning about and reflecting upon the issue and impact of immigration on children and their families. Our artist Christine Breslin along with representatives from The Migrant Center and Grannies Respond shared stories from their experiences at the border. In addition to the backpacks, both organizations received over $500 in gift cards and monetary donations to support their outreach to newly arriving families. You heard the call for help and you responded!

Many thanks for your genuine expression of care and concern for our sisters and brothers who are suffering. You have made a difference!

St. Patrick - St. Anthony Ladies Guild Celebrating 85 Years

WWI: The Guild's growth was rapid and numbered 500 during the war years. Devotion to faith and the needs of the Church and its soon-to-be started parish school were strong.

1944: Sister Mary Patti and four Sisters Fillipini arrived in St. Anthony Parish to open and to run the parish school at Casa Maria. To launch the Sisters in their new home, which was located adjacent to the Catholic Lending Library, the Ladies Guild held a pantry shower. The household needs of the Sisters were met with abundance. Once furnished and ready for occupancy, Father Kelly blessed the new dwelling, including Market Street in front of the Convent.

Fund-raising activities to support the school were many during these trying years of depression and war. Rummage sales, card parties, spaghetti suppers, bazaars, raffles, variety and fashion shows, house parties provided for social and financial benefits.

Palm Sunday Food Drive

Over the remaining days between Ash Wednesday and Palm Sunday, we challenge you to set aside $1 each day with the goal of feeding those in need locally.

We will be holding a food drive on Palm Sunday to support and help feed the families served by the House of Bread and Hands on Hartford. The money you set aside during Lent can be used to buy food to share with these families who worry about their next meal so they can have food in their cupboards during Holy Week and on Easter.

The items below can be purchase at Aldi for $26.00:

Peanut Butter, Rice, Dried Beans, Pasta, Pasta Sauce, Tuna, Canned Chicken, Cereal, Granola Bars, Ground Coffee, Sugar and 2 Canned Vegetables.
