is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

The Pastor's Corner

July 2, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I have to be honest, but I just don't understand the current trend of tattoos. People cover their arms, legs, faces (and probably other parts) with various bits of "body art." Some of them are quite artistic, and probably cost quite a bit of money, as well as pain. But as I once heard one observer comment: "Once you've got it, you've got it."

While doing some research on the internet in preparation for this letter, I came across a web page titled "101 Great Cross Tattoo Ideas For [the] Back" – a seemingly endless series of photos of various types of crosses permanently tattooed to people's backs.

Several years ago, while taking a walk along the Hudson River in New York City on a sunny afternoon in early July, I spotted a young couple walking ahead of me. The young man, who was shirtless on that hot day, sported a large tattoo on his back similar to the one pictured here.

I managed to catch up to the couple and told them that I couldn't help but notice the fellow's tattoo. I introduced myself and told him that his tattoo of a large wooden cross on his back reminded me of that Sunday's Gospel in which Jesus said: "Whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me."

We ended up having a very pleasant conversation, and the young man, probably in his mid-20's, told me that getting that particular tattoo was a reminder to him that he should try to live a good Christian life, and that the cross on his back would be a life-long and literal way of "carrying his cross."

Although I personally feel that a person doesn't need to go to such drastic measures in order to live the Gospel teachings of Jesus, I understood what the young man was saying, and I admired his desire to have the cross on his back as his own form of witness.

The message that our Gospel reading this weekend offers us is that being a disciple of Jesus is no joyride. Sometimes it requires radical disengagement from people or things who might get in the way.

But not everyone is called to a life of complete ascetic detachment, either. It's more a matter of setting one's priorities in the proper order. This is a teaching that Jesus often emphasized: putting God first in our lives, and living a life that reflects our love for God as well as love for our neighbor.

Jesus also spoke on several occasions about the need to take up one's cross and follow him, just as he took up his cross and walked the hill of Calvary. That means sacrificing one's self for the good of others, especially those who might not appreciate our efforts. Even the simplest things we do for others can have great meaning and value. What and how we do something is one thing; why we do it is what gives it meaning.

In the sixth chapter of St. Paul's letter to the Romans, we find the reason for why we are called to live for others through the cross of Christ. Here, Paul reminds us of our baptism into the death of Christ. "If we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him," Paul writes. But this isn't just about the future; it has serious implications for the present. Living and dying with Christ implies that we must be willing to live as he did: for the sake of others.

We do this whenever we give ourselves to him through serving others, by giving our time and talents to others, especially when some form of sacrifice is involved.

We don't necessarily need to get a tattoo on our backs, or even wear a cross around our necks, or wear medals to show others that we are Christian disciples. They are simply reminders that we should be who we say we are. Our very lives should be the outward sign of our inner commitment to Christ.

As we celebrate July Fourth this coming week, let us remember the concluding words of the Declaration of Independence: "With a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor."

Blessings on your week ahead!

ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD
134 FARMINGTON AVENUE
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT
06105-3784

OFFICE OF
THE ARCHBISHOP

June 26, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As announced in Rome on June 26, Pope Francis has appointed, at my request, a Coadjutor Archbishop for Hartford, Bishop Christopher Coyne, Bishop of Burlington, Vermont.

Bishop Coyne's appointment as coadjutor means that upon my retirement next year after I reach the canonical retirement age of 75 he will succeed me as your Archbishop.

I made this request of Pope Francis in a letter I sent to him dated January 24 of this year. With the passing of years and my own retirement age approaching, I told Pope Francis that the appointment of a coadjutor bishop would not only be helpful to me for the pastoral care of the Archdiocese, but would also provide my successor with time to become familiar with the Archdiocese, its clergy and people, and with our ongoing pastoral planning, before becoming Archbishop.

I should add that a request for the appointment of a coadjutor bishop is not unprecedented, as we saw recently in the Diocese of Providence, Rhode Island, with the appointment of Bishop Henning as coadjutor to succeed Bishop Tobin.

I am grateful to Pope Francis for granting my request and to Bishop Coyne for accepting this appointment from the Holy Father. I first met Bishop Coyne in 2011 and we have worked together as members of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. His years of ministry as a priest and bishop speak for themselves, and our Archdiocese will be blest to have him as chief shepherd when the time comes. I know we will give him a warm welcome.

Bishop Coyne will take up residence in the Archdiocese with a Mass of Welcome to be celebrated at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph, Mother Church of the Archdiocese of Hartford, on Monday, October 9, 2023, at 2 PM.

As for me, my 75th birthday, God willing, will be April 12, 2024. I hope with divine assistance to continue to fulfill my responsibilities faithfully, now ably assisted by both Coadjutor Archbishop Coyne and Bishop Betancourt.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Leonard P. Blair
Archbishop of Hartford

Refugee Children's Clothing Drive JULY 8 & 9 AFTER ALL MASSES

Recently, we were made aware of a group of refugees from Haiti who were literally dropped off at a hotel in Chicopee, MA. Among this group are 111 children who arrived with nothing more than the clothes on their backs.

Pastor Vasily, who has been helping the Ukrainian refugees in Western Massachusetts, is now helping these Haitian children and has opened his collection center to the Haitian refugees. Pastor Vasily needs our help to clothe the 111 children who range from infants to 17 years old.

Here is your chance to clear out your closets of the kid's old clothes.

Psalms: A Dialogue with God

Thursdays on Zoom, July 6, 13, 20, 27 & August 3, 10;
10:30-11:30 AM

In 1994, Dorothy Jones wrote of Dag Hammarskjöld, Secretary-General of the United Nations, that he viewed his work not simply as a political role, but as a religious calling. When his briefcase was recovered after the fatal plane crash in September 1961, it contained a copy of the New Testament, a copy of the United Nations Charter, and a copy of the Book of Psalms.

In this course, we shall prayerfully review some of these psalms that reveal God's word to us and that express our thanks, praise, pleas, and frustrations to the God who cares. We will also break open the Psalm for the upcoming weekend liturgies.

Religious Education Registration 2023-2024 will open May 1st!

The religious education programs at St. Patrick – St. Anthony Church are designed to allow parents to choose not only the best schedule for their young children but also the best learning format for those children. We firmly believe that the parents (and families) are the original and primary educators of their children, and we are honored to support you in nurturing your child's faith. Our classes begin at age three.

For this reason, religious education for children through sixth grade can occur at St. Patrick – St. Anthony Church within a traditional format, a hands-on (Montessori) format (Catechesis of the Good Shepherd) or a family format (Whole Community Catechesis).

All students come together in one seventh and eighth grade program so that they can begin to form a cohesive group for our ninth and tenth grade Confirmation class. Our 7,8 and high schoolers are very involved in social justice and community service.

The 7th and 8th graders host parish wide service projects (i.e. Advent Wreath Workshop and Easter Cookie Delivery), build connections with the homebound of our parish, and volunteer regularly helping set up and working in the hydroponic gardens with LEVO International.

The Confirmation program includes regular service with House of Bread, No-Freezer Shelter, Franciscan Center Sandwich Ministry and other opportunities with our community partners, and an open invitation to participate in the life of our parish by joining any of our ministries such as the singing in the choir, lectoring, Altar Serving, etc.

All programs take place within the traditional school year (September through May). Check out the website, www.spsact.org/faith-formation/youth-faith-formation for more information or contact Deborah Pelletier at dpelletier@spsact.org.

Sister Parish: Christmas in July

The Sister Parish team invites your continued financial and spiritual support of our sister parish of St. Genevieve, especially during our 2023 "Christmas in July" program. Starting next weekend, July 8 & 9, and throughout July masses, you can visit the Sister Parish Christmas Tree, choose a tag, and learn more from a committee member in-person.

As Fr. Gaby has written to us, our covenant relationship and the funds we raise, enables them to "feed students, teachers, and kitchen staff, pay our teachers, purchase school materials, and make repairs to student chairs, and benches, and provide general maintenance".

We will continue to update you on the dire situation in Haiti and our sister parishioners and Pastor Gaby. This week, for your reflection, we share with you the moving words of Francis Rago, a parishioner who wrote several poems after returning from a visit to St. Genevieve.

Bon swa, good people of St. Genevieve

I extended my hand;
You offered your cheeks for me to kiss,
and warmly did your kind eyes smile.
You prepared your simple food
And presented it with care.
You welcomed me to your council meeting,
hugged me your Sign of Peace at Mass.

You fill your irons every day with clumps of charcoal made red hot to send your children off to school with uniforms always sharply pressed.
Their bright little faces can melt a heart.
They smile and play and eagerly learn.
They are like children everywhere.

Not likely will you own a car.
A toaster doesn't brown your bread.
But should we measure spiritual wealth,
yours are the souls that are truly rich.
I bask in your shared humanity,
am humbled by your faith.
In hopes and dreams,
you are like people everywhere.
We are the same.
We are one.

Francis Rago
