The Pastor's Corner

June 11, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ this weekend, we are reinstating the reception of the Blood of Christ from the Cup, starting with the Sunday 10:00 AM Mass. As I explained in my letter of May 21st, I feel that we should start slowly and then gradually include all the weekend Masses. So please be patient as we see how things progress over the next several weeks. I am hopeful that the return of the Cup will be a welcome sign of Eucharistic renewal for our parish.

Eucharistic renewal has been very much on the minds of our nation's Catholic bishops, with some of them sounding alarm bells over the fact that poll results show that only a third of Catholics in the U.S. believe that the Eucharist is truly the Body and Blood of Christ. In response, the Bishops issued a document titled "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church" in 2021. They also embarked on a three-year program of Eucharistic revival in the United States last year which will culminate with a National Eucharistic Congress in 2024 in Indianapolis.

Both the document and the Eucharistic revival program are intended to help Catholics renew their faith in the presence of Christ in the bread and wine which are consecrated and shared at Mass. I can understand the bishops' concern for a perceived lack of faith and understanding on the part of some members of the Church who might not have received a proper or thorough catechesis of the Church's teaching on the Eucharist.

Part of this lack of faith or understanding might be attributed to the liturgical reforms instituted after the Second Vatican Council. As the Mass evolved from Latin to English, with the altar facing the congregation, reception of Communion in the hand, etc., a certain level of mystery and reverence for the Eucharist may have been lost. While we have heard that "familiarity breeds contempt," I prefer to think of it as familiarity breeding, not contempt, but possible carelessness in how the Mass is celebrated. As a young boy who served Mass in the old Tridentine form, I certainly welcomed the changes that came about after the Council. Unfortunately, a period of experimentation followed which may have had unintended consequences. This has led to a backlash in some parts of the Church which has caused dissension, confusion, and believers pitting themselves against each other in a quest for a return to the "good old days" of liturgical orthodoxy.

This is unfortunate, indeed, and the Church is suffering as a result. As Catholics, we ought to be able to recognize and celebrate our giftedness and unite ourselves as a family of believers around the table of the Lord who continues to make himself present in the Bread and Wine of his Body and Blood.

Perhaps we just need a few gentle reminders once in a while to help us renew our love for the Lord in the Eucharist and to receive it with reverence and dignity.

St. Cyril of Jerusalem in 348 gave this instruction to his congregation: "When you approach Holy Communion, make the left hand into a throne for the right, which will receive the King. With your hand hollowed, receive the Body of Christ and answer 'Amen.'" Thus, as we receive the Body of Christ, our hands should be open, with one hand on top of the other, rather than side-by-side, so that the host may be placed there securely. Our vocal response of "Amen" should be intentional, not silent or mumbled.

Some parishioners have asked about intinction, the practice of dipping the consecrated host into the consecrated wine. This is a recognized form of receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, but it has its limitations. Self-intinction has never been permitted, however, because of possible accidents as well as the fact that one should not "take" the Eucharist oneself, but receive it from a priest, deacon or Eucharistic minister. Those who wish to receive the Blood of Christ should drink from the cup reverently and carefully. If you are not feeling well, it might be better not to receive from the cup at that time.

The liturgies that are celebrated here at St. Patrick-St. Anthony are joyful, exuberant, reverent moments of faith which lead into service and ministry to others – just what they ought to be! Our participation in the Eucharist is the nourishment we need to live more like Christ; it is our food for the journey as we travel towards the Kingdom of God. Let us receive the Lord, the Bread of Life, who humbled himself so that we might share in his divinity, with all faith and confidence!

Blessings on your week ahead!

Welcoming the Stranger: One Parish's Refugee Ministry Story

Thursday, June 15, 6:30 to 7:30 PM. on Zoom

A surprise visit...it was just that. For the parishioners of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Edgartown, MA, as well as many of the inhabitants of Martha's Vineyard, the arrival of 50 Venezuelan immigrants was both "unexpected" as well as "astonishing". The Venezuelans had been promised a flight from Florida to Boston. So they were very surprised to find themselves on Martha's Vineyard instead. It didn't take long for them to comprehend their arrival was unexpected. But quickly sensed that they would be amazed by the outpouring of hospitality, support, and compassion they were to receive from both this parish community and the entire island.

Come meet the people of faith who embodied a motto near and dear to us at SPSA, "Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors"! The pastor along with some parishioners of St. Andrew's will join us virtually on Thursday, June 15 from 6:30 to 7:30 PM for a fascinating sharing of their story of radical hospitality and kindness. You don't want to miss this opportunity! Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/3ssx2wps> to register, receive the Zoom meeting link and JOIN US!

Transformational Hospitality and Kindness

NEW DATE - Thursday, June 22, 7:00 to 8:15 PM.

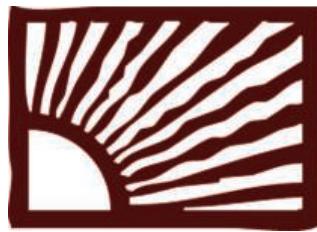

Join us for a viewing of the documentary, "Stranger at the Gate". This documentary is highly acclaimed and is about an ex-Marine who came home from Afghanistan to restart his life... a life that was clouded with PTSD. He and his family started a life in a town which had a very large Muslim population... a population he had grown to hate in his time in Afghanistan. This hatred continued to grow and, his hatred for this group began to shape a hate crime he planned to execute. This is a story of the power of hospitality and how it can totally change someone. Please plan to join with others in-person in the Franciscan Center on Thursday, June 22 starting at 7:00 PM for viewing the documentary followed by conversation together. Please go to <https://bit.ly/41hVuQ8> to register ahead of time.

Women in the Church: our History, our Present, and our Future

The Women of Hope Ministry continues to explore the topic of Woman Deacons – further motivated by the support and hope seen in the Global Synod report ("Enlarge the Space of Your Tent"). The two excerpts below present the call for change within the institution of the Church so it can reflect the truth, dignity and reality of the lives of the People of God.

¶ 62. In every area of their lives, women ask the Church to be their ally. This includes addressing the social realities of impoverishment, violence and diminishment faced by women across the globe. They call for a Church at their side, and greater understanding and support in combating these forces of destruction and exclusion. Women participating in the synodal processes desire both Church and society to be a place of flourishing, active participation and healthy belonging. Some reports note that the cultures of their countries have made progress in the inclusion and participation of women, progress that could serve as a model for the Church. "This lack of equality for women within the Church is seen as a stumbling block for the Church in the modern world" (EC New Zealand).

Next Column...

¶ 64. Almost all reports raise the issue of full and equal participation of women: "The growing recognition of the importance of women in the life of the Church opens up possibilities for greater, albeit limited, participation in Church structures and decision-making spheres" (EC Brazil). However, the reports do not agree on a single or complete response to the question of the vocation, inclusion and flourishing of women in Church and society. After careful listening, many reports ask that the Church continue its discernment in relation to a range of specific questions: the active role of women in the governing structures of Church bodies, the possibility for women with adequate training to preach in parish settings, and a female diaconate.

We Women of Hope remain hopeful that we will become a more synodal Church. This means being a Church that listens, and receives the gifts and contributions of all, including women. A Church which brings the margins to the center, and walks together in living the mission we have all received from Jesus.
