Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying:
“A sower went out to sow.

The Pastor's Corner

July 16, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Today's gospel parable about a farmer who sows seed on various types of ground always makes me think of a sculpture I once saw in London's Kew Gardens. Titled simply "A Sower," it depicts a man holding a large basket as his free arm flings a handful of seed. This seems like such a haphazard way to plant seed, but in the ancient world that was probably the best way to do the job.

Not everything we do always turns out the way we might have planned. Life often seems haphazard at times, doesn't it? Even the most organized among us can sometimes find ourselves in uncertain situations where we don't have any idea what we're doing! I felt that way for about the first year of being a pastor, and I'm still learning two years later.

The little seeds we plant along the way, without our even noticing, can become rooted and begin to grow. An idea or bit of inspiration is all it takes to begin a journey of growth for one's self or for the sake of others. A clothing drive for refugees, like the one we had last weekend, returned huge results. So many good and beneficial things occur because someone had an idea – the seed which grew and bore fruit. But some ideas don't bear fruit, and that's okay too. It never hurts to try something new or different and just see what happens.

On Saturday, July 8, we began the return of the Cup of the Blood of Christ at the 4:00 Mass. With just two Eucharistic Ministers, together with the celebrant, we managed quite well. The Body of Christ was distributed on either side in front of the first pew while the minister of the Cup stood in the center at the foot of the steps. Meanwhile, at the 10:00 Mass we use three Eucharistic Ministers to provide easier traffic flow.

We will begin to reinstate the Cup at the other Masses very soon, and we encourage you to consider receiving the Blood of Christ whenever it is available.

Blessings on your week ahead!

Sister Parish "Christmas in July"

Along with many of you, the Sister Parish Committee is aware and very concerned that Haiti, and specifically Zorance and the St. Genevieve community, has become deeply and directly affected by the gang violence and political turmoil in that country. Through weekly communications with Fr. Gaby Noel, we have learned of the unprecedented violence and oppression that has now moved beyond the streets of Port-au-Prince to the countryside. Daily life as it has been known is impossible, with schools and churches closed, meager provisions unavailable and willful lawlessness ruling the villages.

It is because of these unprecedented times that the Sister Parish Committee has proposed to temporarily extend our support beyond the traditional aims. We have given Fr. Gaby the latitude to help those most affected by this inhumanity within his Parish of St. Genevieve.

And, we are fortunate to have a strong Advocacy Sub-Committee to the Sister Parish Committee. Their tireless work to garner support for an international response to the conditions in Haiti and affect real change throughout the country is to be commended. They are having conversations leading to actions with U.S. Senators, Congresspersons and influential Bishops. We have connected with several, and soon to be dozens, of other "twinning" parishes across the country. These voices are being amplified and their messages being heard, demanding a response. Only God knows where this will lead. So far, so good.

Father Gaby and several of his parishioners have been forced to leave their village, returning only during the daylight hours. Most nights, they are not able to be in their homes, and must sleep, as Father says, "under the stars".

These are the same stars we see from our homes in Connecticut. Perhaps tonight we might reflect on how different life is depending on where we happen to be born. We must always remember that we are all God's children to bear witness to the light. We are called to be His hands in this world, to strive to discern His will and do His work.

Thank you – Mesi!

Donations can be made one of the following ways:

- By check: at Mass or mail, please note "Christmas in July" on the memo line.
- Online: Please go to <https://spsact.org/our-parish/sister-parish-st-genevieve/> or scan the QR Code with your cell phone camera.

You are Invited...

Pope Francis' SYNOD has brought our Church to a remarkable moment in history. The Pope's commitment to synodality -- walking together and listening to one another on the journey of faith -- is bearing witness to the critical and urgent call to rethink women's participation in the Church echoed across every continent. This is important and timely: the global Church is actively discerning about women and the diaconate, alongside expanded roles in preaching and governance. It's ultimately a decision for our pope — but Pope Francis wants to hear from the People of God.

All faith communities are invited to lift up this intention in prayer through the intercession of Deacon Phoebe, collaborator with Paul in ministry to the people of the early Church.

I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon of the church in Cenchreae. I ask you to receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the holy ones... Romans 16:1-2

Our Women of Hope Ministry invites you to join with others in the prayer below throughout this summer and fall. Be on the lookout for two opportunities to gather in September as together we engage with this moment in time as the People of God.

Enlightened by grace and taught the faith by the chosen vessel of Christ, you were found worthy of the diaconate and you carried Paul's words to Rome.

O Deacon Phoebe, pray to Christ God that his Spirit may enlighten our souls and guide the discernment of the Church that the gifts and voices of women may be received and affirmed in our day for the service of your people!

Paul proclaimed you a protector of many, and you became his helper. Hearken to those who approach you with faith and who cry out to you with love:

Rejoice, glory of Corinth and pride of Achaia; rejoice, you lamp of Cenchreae; rejoice, O Deacon Phoebe.

Prayer texts adapted from hymns of the Orthodox liturgy: Apolytikion in the Third Tone and Kontakion in the Second Tone.

Psalms: A Dialogue with God

Thursdays on Zoom, July 20, 27 & August 3, 10;
10:30-11:30 AM

In 1994, Dorothy Jones wrote of Dag Hammarskjöld, Secretary-General of the United Nations, that he viewed his work not simply as a political role, but as a religious calling. When his briefcase was recovered after the fatal plane crash in September 1961, it contained a copy of the New Testament, a copy of the United Nations Charter, and a copy of the Book of Psalms.

In this course, we shall prayerfully review some of these psalms that reveal God's word to us and that express our thanks, praise, pleas, and frustrations to the God who cares. We will also break open the Psalm for the upcoming weekend liturgies.
