Open Doors*

We are a welcoming and dynamic community of Christian disciples. Rooted in the Franciscan experience of the Roman Catholic tradition, we proactively endeavor to extend hospitality both at the Eucharistic Table and as we minister reciprocally and in solidarity among the alienated and the poor, nurturing the mind, body, and spirit in the Greater Hartford Community. All are welcome!

A Novel Idea Bookgroup is 30 this Month!!

A Novel Idea is celebrating its 30th anniversary in October. Back in 1993, Fr. John Ulrich, O.F.M.+ started the Adult Formation groups, and asked Marci Alborghetti, a writer, if she would form a book discussion group. She agreed and "A Novel Idea" was formed to promote fiction, faith, and fellowship. By reading about people in diverse cultures in various situations we develop empathy and understanding and learn about ourselves. When Marci left the Hartford area, she asked Marybeth Walsh and Sara Zagorski to take over the group.

Thank you to all who have participated in our discussions over the years and welcome to any interested people who would like to participate in the future. Drop in any time one of our book choices is of interest to you; notices are posted in the Bulletin. 30th Anniversary image is of a painting by Beth Pite.

Our selection for October 19th is The Lincoln Highway by Amor Towles. According the npr.org, "The Lincoln Highway is a joyride." Join us on October 19th at 7:00 PM. For more information, please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Novel-Idea>.

Bringing Down the Gifts at Masses

The Pastor's Corner

October 8, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

As we welcome Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne to the Archdiocese of Hartford on Monday, October 9, I would like to share with you some information about him.

Born on June 17, 1958, in Woburn, Massachusetts, he attended public schools in Woburn, graduating from Woburn Memorial High School in 1976. In 1980, he received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from University of Massachusetts in Lowell. For two years after graduation, he worked as a bartender, and in 1986, he graduated with a Master of Divinity degree from St. John's Seminary in Boston. According to his biography, Archbishop Coyne is a lifelong Patriots, Celtics and Bruins fan, a (Maine) beach bum and an avid skier and golfer.

On June 7, 1986, Archbishop Coyne was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Boston. In 1992, he earned his Licentiate in Sacred Theology and in 1994 his Doctor of Sacred Liturgy degree from the Pontifical Liturgical Institute in Rome. He was Professor of Sacred Liturgy and Homiletics at St. John's Seminary, Brighton from 1994 to 2003, and adjunct professor from 2003 to 2006. He also served in several parishes in the Boston area as a parochial vicar or pastor.

In 2002, he became secretary for communications and archdiocesan spokesman in the middle of the sex abuse scandal in the archdiocese. Although he has been criticized in the media because of this, by all accounts he handled the difficult and painful situation with sensitivity and great empathy for the victims.

In March, 2011 he was ordained an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, Indiana and served there until he became Bishop of Burlington, Vermont in January, 2015. On June 26, 2023, Pope Francis named him Coadjutor Archbishop of Hartford. As such, he will serve alongside Archbishop Blair until the latter reaches the age of 75 next April. At that time, Archbishop Coyne will automatically become Archbishop of Hartford.

Everyone is welcome to attend the Mass of Welcome on Monday, October 9 at 2:00 PM at St. Joseph Cathedral on Farmington Avenue. Parking will be available in the Aetna Parking Garage on Sigourney Street. A public reception will be held after the Mass in the Aetna Auditorium across the street from the cathedral. I hope St. Patrick-St. Anthony parish will be well represented!

I'd like to thank everyone who was involved in last weekend's events, including the Blessing of Animals and the celebration of the 20th Anniversary of the Clare Gallery on Saturday, as well as the Parish Picnic on Sunday on a beautiful sunny day (except for all the bees who crashed the party!). All of the events were wonderful opportunities for us to get together and enjoy one another's company as well as some delicious food and drink!

Please don't forget to send in your photos for our Parish Christmas Tree in the church. I am looking forward to filling the tree with all your lovely, smiling faces! Email a digital file to tshreenan@gmail.com or bring a photo to the parish office where it will be scanned. Please include the names of the individuals in the photo.

Blessings on your week ahead!

In Quiet Prayer

Wednesday, October 11, on Zoom, 7:30-8:00 AM.

Join us by Zoom Wednesday mornings for a half hour, from 7:30-8:00 a.m., to sit "in quiet" in the presence of silence, to heal and restore in hope and joy, to ground and guide. We begin with a brief ritual of offering compassion for the needs of our world and ourselves. A reflection is shared. Here is an excerpt from last week's reflection: "Let us bless the humility of water. Always willing to take the shape of whatever otherness holds it...", by Irish poet John O'Donohue. Twenty minutes of silence follows for personal prayer and meditation. Please register at <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-In-Quiet-Prayer> to receive the Zoom link.

Taproot

Wednesday, October 11, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 PM on Zoom

"Pursuing Our Passions" led by Guest Facilitator, Gloria Ulterino from Rochester, NY. What really matters to you? What demands your attention and ongoing learning? What inspires your action for good? For Gloria Ulterino, it is nothing less than the liturgy of our Church, which encompasses Scripture, music, storytelling and proclaiming the Good News in countless ways. Please join us for insights and conversation to find our own lives in the liturgy we share and the stories we bring to the world. Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Taproot> to register and receive Zoom link.

Deepening our Consciousness of God;

Thursday, October 19, 2023, 6:30 to 7:30 PM

The Daily Examen is an Ignatian Spirituality Prayer Practice that enables us to find God in all things. Plan to attend this in-person gathering to learn:

- * How God can be found in the everyday stuff of life .
- * How to make the Daily Examen (through guided meditation).
- * How to continue your practice of consciousness of God in everyday life.

Please Register HERE \(bit.ly/deepening-consciousness\) to let us know you are attending.

Building Right Relationships

October 26, 6:00 to 8:00 PM

Come enjoy an evening focusing on building right relationships.

We welcome guest speaker, Chris Doucot of the Hartford Catholic Worker. Chris will incorporate aspects of his book "No Innocent Bystanders: Becoming an ally in the struggle for justice" centering on Shalom, i.e. right relationships: what makes a relationship right/wrong, how to make right relationships, and the need to enter right relationships with persecuted, oppressed, impoverished, and/or otherwise "othered" people in our faith lives as a fundamental expression of our Catholic faith.

Join us for this informative and motivational evening. No pre-registration needed. All are welcome.

Suggested Free-will offering: $15

Sponsored by Open Hearts, Family and Friends and the Committee for Social Justice.

The Basics of LGBTQ+ and Our Common
Call to Offer Support

Tuesday, October 24; 6:30-7:45 PM.

- * What does science tell us about being LGBTQ+?
- * What are the two aspects of the Church's teaching on LGBTQ+?
- * How is the way we welcome or do not welcome an LGBTQ+ person, a Life Issue?
- * As allies, what can we do to support life – support our LGBTQ+ sisters, brothers, youth, and loved ones?

Through conducting more than 35 Synod listening sessions, we have witnessed that there are many women, men and youth of our parish who are concerned about the welcome and inclusion of members of the LGBTQ+ community in our Catholic Church today. Many people affirmed our Open Hearts LGBTQ+ Ministry and Friends & Family Support Ministry. And, over the past six months with the release of the national and global Synod reports, we have learned of the expressed "desire for radical inclusion – no one is excluded" in the Catholic Church worldwide. Pope Francis' Synod affords us the potential to transform our hearts through an experience of discipleship steeped in the radical ministry of Jesus. To stay open to this call, we are invited to deepen our knowledge about the Synod topics and desired changes for our Church.

We would like to further empower allies of the LGBTQ+ community through opportunities to dialogue about "gender issues" in our culture today and increase our understanding from scientific and spiritual perspectives.

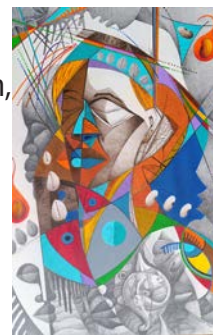

We have designed one session to start this conversation and invite you to join us. We encourage you to "bring a friend" with you as together we explore the above questions.

This important parish gathering is open to all. Please feel free to invite a friend or relative, neighbor, colleague, classmate, etc. Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Basics> to let us know you are attending.

Presenter: Rich Broggini. Suggested Offering: $10.00

Clare Gallery's new exhibit!

Clare Gallery's final 20th Anniversary exhibition, Color and Identity: A Visual Conversation, reveals national artist Stanwyck Cromwell's ongoing artistic journey. Cromwell is originally from Guyana. His artwork is a visual representation of the nostalgic memories of his Guyanese home, Caribbean influences of the West Indies (including its spirituality), as well as his experiences living in New England – specifically Hartford, CT. He has a love and respect for the West End community in Hartford and teaching at The Artists Collective and Capital Community College. He immigrated as a young man and states, "I grew up in a time when you worked hard and your word was your bond." He associated with people from all walks of life. Those unique and varied conversations have made their way into his work. The artworks are rich hybrid abstract expressions of his Guyanese home blended with his American experiences. Cromwell states: "Even though I left home, I never left home."

An artist reception: Sunday, October 22, 1-3 PM.

A panel discussion: Sunday, November 19, 1-2 PM.

Panelists will include the artist; John Motley, past president of the Amistad Center for Art & Culture and of the Wadsworth Museum of Art; and Fiona Vernal, Associate Professor, History and Africana Studies at the University of Connecticut.

Oaxaca, Mexico - December 9 to 16, 2023

St. Francis Builds is headed to Oaxaca, Mexico this Advent from Dec. 9 to 16 and Fr. Mike would like you to join him. The group, along with members of the non profit, Friends of Pimpollo, will help to build a school in Oaxaca. Further information about the organization is found here: www.friendsofpimpollo.org.

If you are over 18 years (or under 18 and accompanied by a parent) and interested in this trip, please contact both Terry Sabonis at: ts428@georgetown.edu and Beth Hood at bhood134@gmail.com or text at 301-578-6150. Se habla espanol.

We would especially love to include first-time volunteers and members of diverse language communities! Trip cost is approximately $1,000, plus airfare; limited scholarships are available.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.)

There are many reasons to explore, pursue and deepen one's relationship to the Catholic Church. Some do so because they have fallen in love with a practicing Catholic and they are interested in learning more about their partner's faith. Some come from nominally Catholic families, but received little or no religious instruction when they were young and are now seeking to reconnect with their family's faith tradition. Some have no religious affiliation whatsoever, but are experiencing a longing for meaning, spirituality, community, and a sense of purpose in their lives. Some are already practicing Catholics who, for whatever reason, never received the sacrament of Confirmation and desire to do so now.

If you or someone you know fits any of these descriptions, then the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults may be what you or your friend may be looking for. For more information, contact Fr. Bill Beaudin, O.F.M. (wbeaudin@gmail.com or 860-756-4034).

you!

Tuesday Hot Meal:

Did you know...

We have been serving close to 80 meals each week and are always looking for dishes and ingredients and help with prep and serving. The Tuesday meal process starts at 2:00 PM, serving starts at 4:00 PM let us know if you are interested in volunteering for either role!

Pound of Pasta: For each of the following Tuesday pasta dinners I have plenty of opportunities open for folks to drop off a pound of your favorite pasta dish - if you want to drop it off on the weekend before Mass we can pop it in the freezer.

Specific Need: We need the following items for our hot meal on Tuesday, October 10, 2023: Boxes of penne pasta, Parmesan Cheese, Lettuce, Tomatoes, Cucumbers, and Bell Peppers. Items can be dropped off in the office.

St. Francis Bakers

We are looking to add to the baking teams to meet our increased needs. If you like to bake we have an opportunity for you.

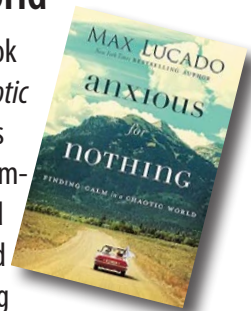

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday the sandwich servers distribute home baked goodies with the sandwiches. We started by planning to serve 60 guests at our window, it is not uncommon to serve over 90 and as many as 120.

So the need is there, if you would to help us share the love through baking this is the Ministry for you. You are welcome to take on a particular delivery day and amount but random acts of baking are also greatly appreciated.

Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World

Sister Ginny is inviting us to explore the book "Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World" by the author Max Lucado. The dates are (Wednesdays) October 18, 25 and November 1, 8, 15; (Thursdays) October 19, 26 and November 2, 9, 16. The sessions will be held from 12:45 pm to 2:15 pm. The first reading assignment will be Chapters 1 and 2.

Amazon's write-up about the book states, "... Max Lucado, provides a roadmap for coping with and healing from anxiety. Complete with Lucado's signature storytelling and relatable anecdotes, Anxious for Nothing invites us to study Philippians 4:6-7 - the most highlighted passage of the Bible and any book on the planet according to Amazon."

If you plan on participating, please register by Friday, October 13 with Anna Eddy at eddyab@att.net and provide your preferred day (Wednesday or Thursday). You do not have to commit to every session and you can swap a day if you have a schedule conflict. A zoom link will be provided with your confirmation.

Mass of Welcome for Coadjuter Archbishop Coyne

All the faithful of the Archdiocese of Hartford are cordially invited to attend a Mass of Welcome for Coadjuter Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne on October 9th at 2:00 PM at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph in Hartford.

We are here to serve you. The programs and ministries listed below are just a sampling of our many offerings. Please go to www.spsact.org or call the Parish Office at 860-756-4034 for more information.

Baptism: Baptism of infants and young children may be celebrated during Sunday Mass and Group Baptisms on the 1st Saturday of each month outside of the season of Lent.

Patricia Curtis, Pastoral Associate; 860-756-4034, EXT. 113.

Matrimony: The Sacrament of Marriage at St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church are celebrated Friday and Saturdays. The Bride or Groom should contact Carolyn Abramo, Wedding Manager; 860-756-4034, EXT. 111 or <https://spsact.org/wedding-request-form/> to begin preparation for Marriage, normally one year in advance and before any other arrangements are made for a reception.

Pastoral Care Outreach Ministry: We offer holistic care in collaboration with the parish staff (friars, ministry coordinators, and parish nurses). Members of this team are responsible for visiting parishioners at home or in long term and short term care facilities. Fr. John Leonard, O.F.M.; 860-756-4034, EXT. 129.

Prayer Network: The St. Patrick–St. Anthony Prayer Network consists of approximately fifty parishioners who commit themselves to praying daily for those in need. <https://spsact.org/prayer-network-prayer-request/> or Parish Office; 860-756-4034.

Open Hearts LGBTQ+ Ministry: This ministry consists of two Groups: Open Hearts holds monthly fellowship meetings, and Friends and Family (LGBTQ+) Support Ministry, which supports members and allies of the LGBTQ+ community.
