

The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests.
But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him,
“My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?”

Mon ami, comment es-tu entré ici sans avoir un habit de nocés?
(My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?)

We are a welcoming and dynamic community of Christian disciples. Rooted in the Franciscan experience of the Roman Catholic tradition, we proactively endeavor to extend hospitality both at the Eucharistic Table and as we minister reciprocally and in solidarity among the alienated and the poor, nurturing the mind, body, and spirit in the Greater Hartford Community. All are welcome!

The Pastor's Corner

October 15, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

History will be made this week when more than 300 Franciscan Friars from across the United States, Puerto Rico, Jamaica and Cuba will meet in Kansas City, MO to establish a new Province in the Order of Friars Minor. The Minister General of the Order, Fr. Massimo Fusarelli, O.F.M. will travel from Rome to witness and confirm establishment of the Province of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the name chosen for the new Province.

Fr. Mike Johnson and Fr. Bill Beaudin will attend the Chapter of Unity which will be held Monday to Friday this week, October 16-20. Following the formal ritual of the establishment of the new Province on Tuesday, the elected Chapter delegates will spend several days discussing and voting on the Provincial Statutes and other proposals that have been submitted for consideration.

The members of the new Provincial administration will also be installed. Fr. Lawrence Hayes, O.F.M., currently the Vice Provincial of Holy Name Province, is due to become the first Provincial Minister of Our Lady of Guadalupe Province. Fr. Mark Soehner, O.F.M., currently Provincial Minister of St. John the Baptist Province headquartered in Cincinnati, OH, is due to become Vice Provincial of the new province. In addition, Fr. Eric Lopez, O.F.M., a member of Holy Name Province who serves as Director of Novices in Santa Barbara, CA, has been elected as one of seven Provincial Councilors for the new province.

such a journey is a sign of hope for everyone in the Order."

Please keep all the friars who will be in Kansas City this week in your prayers as they mark this historic occasion. For the friars here in Hartford who are members of the Province of the Most Holy Name of Jesus, our identity as a province, which has existed for 122 years, will come to an end. But as the saying goes, "When one door closes another opens." I am hopeful that this new identity will energize those of us who serve you here at St. Patrick-St. Anthony as well as all the friars who will make up the new province. It is our faith in Jesus, of whom the Book of Revelation said, "Behold, I make all things new," that will carry us forward into a future of promises and challenges we can only imagine.

My email inbox is starting to fill up with photos for our Parish Christmas Tree. If you haven't sent yours in, please don't forget! Remember, we can also scan a photo if you don't have digital capabilities. Just drop it off at the parish office. I am looking forward to filling the tree with all your lovely, smiling faces! Email your digital file to tshreenan@gmail.com and please include the names of the individuals in the photo.

Blessings on your week ahead!

A Novel Idea Bookgroup is 30 this Month!!

A Novel Idea is celebrating its 30th anniversary in October. Back in 1993, Fr. John Ulrich, O.F.M.+ started the Adult Formation groups, and asked Marci Alborghetti, a writer, if she would form a book discussion group. She agreed and "A Novel Idea" was formed to promote fiction, faith, and fellowship. By reading about people in diverse cultures in various situations we develop empathy and understanding and learn about ourselves. When Marci left the Hartford area, she asked Marybeth Walsh and Sara Zagorski to take over the group.

Thank you to all who have participated in our discussions over the years and welcome to any interested people who would like to participate in the future. Drop in any time one of our book choices is of interest to you; notices are posted in the Bulletin.

Our selection for October 19th is The Lincoln Highway by Amor Towles. According the npr.org, "The Lincoln Highway is a joyride." Join us on October 19th at 7:00 PM. For more information, please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Novel-Idea>.

Our next meetings:

Thursday, October 26, 10:30 AM to 12:00 PM

The Basics of LGBTQ+ and Our Common Call to Offer Support

Tuesday, October 24; 6:30-7:45 PM.

- * What does science tell us about being LGBTQ+?
- * What are the two aspects of the Church's teaching on LGBTQ+?
- * How is the way we welcome or do not welcome an LGBTQ+ person, a Life Issue?
- * As allies, what can we do to support life – support our LGBTQ+ sisters, brothers, youth, and loved ones?

Many people affirmed our Open Hearts LGBTQ+ Ministry and Friends & Family Support Ministry. We would like to further empower allies of the LGBTQ+ community through opportunities to dialogue about "gender issues" in our culture today and increase our understanding from scientific and spiritual perspectives.

This important parish gathering is open to all. Please feel free to invite a friend or relative, neighbor, colleague, classmate, etc. Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Basics> to let us know you are attending.

Presenter: Rich Broggini. Suggested Offering: $10.00

Building Right Relationships

October 26, 6:00 to 8:00 PM

We welcome guest speaker, Chris Doucot of the Hartford Catholic Worker. Chris will incorporate aspects of his book "No Innocent Bystanders: Becoming an ally in the struggle for justice" centering on Shalom, i.e. right relationships: what makes a relationship right/wrong, how to make right relationships, and the need to enter right relationships with persecuted, oppressed, impoverished, and/or otherwise "othered" people in our faith lives as a fundamental expression of our Catholic faith. Join us for this informative and motivational evening. No pre-registration needed. All are welcome. For more info please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-BLD-REL>.

Suggested Free-will offering: $15

Clare Gallery's new exhibit!

Clare Gallery's final 20th Anniversary exhibition, Color and Identity: A Visual Conversation, reveals national artist Stanwyck Cromwell's ongoing artistic journey. Cromwell is originally from Guyana. His artwork is a visual representation of the nostalgic memories of his Guyanese home, Caribbean influences of the West Indies (including its spirituality), as well as his experiences living in New England - specifically Hartford, CT. He has a love and respect for the West End community in Hartford and teaching at The Artists Collective and Capital Community College. He immigrated as a young man and states, "I grew up in a time when you worked hard and your word was your bond." He associated with people from all walks of life. Those unique and varied conversations have made their way into his work. The artworks are rich hybrid abstract expressions of his Guyanese home blended with his American experiences. Cromwell states: "Even though I left home, I never left home."

An artist reception: Sunday, October 22, 1-3 PM.

A panel discussion: Sunday, November 19, 1-2 PM.

Panelists will include the artist; John Motley, past president of the Amistad Center for Art & Culture and of the Wadsworth Museum of Art; and Fiona Vernal, Associate Professor, History and Africana Studies at the University of Connecticut.

Royal Psalms: The "Anointed One"

Thursdays on Zoom, November 2, 9, 16, 30 and December 7, 14
10:30-11:30 AM

"You are my child, today I have become your Father" (Ps 2, verse 2b). While the Christian expectation of the Messiah is fulfilled in Jesus, the reference to the Messiah in the psalms is attached to the "anointed one" of the Davidic line of kings. While YHWH is king of all creation and reigns with divine power from heaven, his "anointed one" rules on earth under YHWH's protection and instruction. In this series, we will discuss the figure of the "anointed one" as he appears in the psalms.

Please register and receive the Zoom link by going to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Royal-Psalms>

Tuesday Hot Meal:

Did you know...

We have been serving close to 80 meals each week and are always looking for dishes and ingredients and help with prep and serving. The Tuesday meal process starts at 2:00 PM, serving starts at 4:00 PM let us know if you are interested in volunteering for either role!

Pound of Pasta: For each of the following Tuesday pasta dinners I have plenty of opportunities open for folks to drop off a pound of your favorite pasta dish - if you want to drop it off on the weekend before Mass we can pop it in the freezer.

St. Francis Bakers

We are looking to add to the baking teams to meet our increased needs. If you like to bake we have an opportunity for you.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday the sandwich servers distribute home baked goodies with the sandwiches. We started by planning to serve 60 guests at our window, it is not uncommon to serve over 90 and as many as 120.

So the need is there, if you would like to help us share the love through baking this is the Ministry for you. You are welcome to take on a particular delivery day and amount but random acts of baking are also greatly appreciated.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.)

There are many reasons to explore, pursue and deepen one's relationship to the Catholic Church. Some do so because they have fallen in love with a practicing Catholic and they are interested in learning more about their partner's faith. Some come from nominally Catholic families, but received little or no religious instruction when they were young and are now seeking to reconnect with their family's faith tradition. Some have no religious affiliation whatsoever, but are experiencing a longing for meaning, spirituality, community, and a sense of purpose in their lives. Some are already practicing Catholics who, for whatever reason, never received the sacrament of Confirmation and desire to do so now.

If you or someone you know fits any of these descriptions, then the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults may be what you or your friend may be looking for. For more information, contact Fr. Bill Beaudin, O.F.M. (wbeaudin@gmail.com or 860-756-4034).
