We are a welcoming and dynamic community of Christian disciples. Rooted in the Franciscan experience of the Roman Catholic tradition, we proactively endeavor to extend hospitality both at the Eucharistic Table and as we minister reciprocally and in solidarity among the alienated and the poor, nurturing the mind, body, and spirit in the Greater Hartford Community. All are welcome!

Pray for Peace

The Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem and Franciscan Friar, Cardinal Pierbattista Pizzaballa, has asked Catholics worldwide to offer prayers for peace during this moment of crisis and conflict in the Holy Land. We welcome you to spend some quiet time in the Chapel of Our Lady of the Angels after this Sunday's 10:00 AM Mass and pray for peace, not only in the Holy Land, but throughout the world.

The Pastor's Corner

October 22, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

The past couple of weeks have offered moments of great contrast between tragedy and joy.

On Saturday, October 7, the Palestinian military group, Hamas, fiercely attacked Israel, killing many Israelis and taking many innocent civilians hostage. Israel responded by declaring war on Hamas, and the conflict has turned into an all-out military conflict, resulting in a sudden and horrific humanitarian crisis.

We grieve over the death and destruction that these ongoing conflicts have inflicted on the place Jesus called "home." The Holy Land has been the stage upon which religious and cultural hatred has been played out over the course of decades, if not centuries. The need for revenge has never been far from the minds of those who struggle for their very existence. Thus, the fighting never seems to end and peaceful coexistence seems virtually impossible.

But we pray, nonetheless, for peace just as the ancient Psalmist did: "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! May they be secure who love! Peace be within your walls and security within your towers!" (Ps. 122: 6-7).

Here is an additional prayer from the jesuitresource.org website.

Peace in the Middle East

God of mercy and compassion,
of grace and reconciliation,
pour your power upon all your children in the Middle East:
Jews, Muslims and Christians,
Palestinians and Israelis.
Let hatred be turned into love, fear to trust, despair to hope,
oppression to freedom, occupation to liberation,
that violent encounters may be replaced by loving embraces,
and peace and justice could be experienced by all.

- Reverend Said

On a more joyful note, it was a pleasure to participate in the ceremonies welcoming our new Coadjutor Archbishop, Christopher J. Coyne, who will become archbishop next April when Archbishop Blair reaches the age of 75.

On Sunday afternoon, October 8, I attended a Solemn Vespers at the Archdiocesan Pastoral Center in Bloomfield for permanent deacons and religious men and women, at which Archbishop Coyne preached. Our own Gabriel Löfvall directed a choir which sang during the Vespers. Then on Monday, October 9, the archbishop was formally welcomed as coadjutor in a beautiful and joyous Mass at St. Joseph Cathedral. At the start of the Mass, Cardinal Christophe Pierre, the Apostolic Nuncio to the United States, read the Apostolic Mandate of appointment. Afterwards, Archbishop Coyne was welcomed by members of the Archdiocesan staff, including Faith Vos Winkel (shown shaking hands with the Archbishop), and Pamela Johnson, who now serves as Administrative Assistant to the Vicar General (fifth in line).

Please continue to send your photos for our Parish Christmas Tree. Many parishioners have told me how much they love the idea! Email your digital file to tshreenan@gmail.com and please include the names of the individuals in the photo.

Win Two Tickets to See Andrea Bocelli in Concert!

A raffle drawing will be held on Sunday, November 12, for two tickets to the Andrea Bocelli concert in the XL Center on Saturday, December 9, at 7:30 PM. The prize also includes dinner for two at Salute on Trumbull Street and free parking.

Raffle tickets are $10 each and can be purchased after weekend Masses, in the parish office, or on our website, spsact.org.

The Secular Franciscan Order Meeting

Is God calling you to live a life of love, peace, and holiness in the model of St. Francis of Assisi? Join us for our gathering in the lower level of the Urban Ministry Center at St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church on October 22nd at 2:00 to learn more about the Secular Franciscan Order. We will be discussing Servant Leadership.

The Basics of LGBTQ+ and Our Common Call to Offer Support

Tuesday, October 24; 6:30-7:45 PM.

- * What does science tell us about being LGBTQ+?
- * What are the two aspects of the Church's teaching on LGBTQ+?
- * How is the way we welcome or do not welcome an LGBTQ+ person, a Life Issue?
- * As allies, what can we do to support life — support our LGBTQ+ sisters, brothers, youth, and loved ones?

Through our Synod listening sessions, many people affirmed our Open Hearts LGBTQ+ Ministry and Friends & Family Support Ministry. We would like to further empower allies of the LGBTQ+ community through opportunities to dialogue about "gender issues" in our culture today and increase our understanding from scientific and spiritual perspectives.

This important parish gathering is open to all. Please feel free to invite a friend or relative, neighbor, colleague, classmate, etc. Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Basics> to let us know you are attending.

Presenter: Rich Broggini. Suggested Offering: $10.00

Building Right Relationships

October 26, 6:00 to 8:00 PM

We welcome guest speaker, Chris Doucot of the Hartford Catholic Worker. Chris will incorporate aspects of his book "No Innocent Bystanders: Becoming an ally in the struggle for justice" centering on Shalom, i.e. right relationships: what makes a relationship right/wrong, how to make right relationships, and the need to enter right relationships with persecuted, oppressed, impoverished, and/or otherwise "othered" people in our faith lives as a fundamental expression of our Catholic faith. Join us for this informative and motivational evening. No pre-registration needed. All are welcome.

Suggested Free-will offering: $15

Sponsored by Open Hearts, Family and Friends and the Committee for Social Justice.

In Quiet Prayer

Wednesday, October 18, 7:30-8:00 AM on Zoom

Join us by Zoom Wednesday mornings for a half hour, from 7:30-8:00 a.m., to sit "in quiet" in the presence of silence, to heal and restore in hope and joy, to ground and guide. We begin with a brief ritual of offering compassion for the needs of our world and ourselves. A reflection is shared. Twenty minutes of silence follows for personal prayer and meditation.

Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-In-Quiet-Prayer> to Register to receive the Zoom link.

Co-facilitators: Pat Curtis and Susan Lennon

Royal Psalms: The "Anointed One"

Thursdays on Zoom, November 2, 9, 16, 30 and December 7, 14 10:30-11:30 AM

"You are my child, today I have become your Father" (Ps 2, verse 2b). While the Christian expectation of the Messiah is fulfilled in Jesus, the reference to the Messiah in the psalms is attached to the "anointed one" of the Davidic line of kings. While YHWH is king of all creation and reigns with divine power from heaven, his "anointed one" rules on earth under YHWH's protection and instruction. In this series, we will discuss the figure of the "anointed one" as he appears in the psalms.

Please register and receive the Zoom link by going to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Royal-Psalms>

Clare Gallery's new exhibit!

Clare Gallery's final 20th Anniversary exhibition, Color and Identity: A Visual Conversation, reveals national artist Stanwyck Cromwell's ongoing artistic journey. Cromwell is originally from Guyana. His artwork is a visual representation of the nostalgic memories of his Guyanese home, Caribbean influences of the West Indies (including its spirituality), as well as his experiences living in New England - specifically Hartford, CT. He has a love and respect for the West End community in Hartford and teaching at The Artists Collective and Capital Community College. He immigrated as a young man and states, "I grew up in a time when you worked hard and your word was your bond." He associated with people from all walks of life. Those unique and varied conversations have made their way into his work. The artworks are rich hybrid abstract expressions of his Guyanese home blended with his American experiences. Cromwell states: "Even though I left home, I never left home."

An artist reception: Sunday, October 22, 1-3 PM.

A panel discussion: Sunday, November 19, 1-2 PM.

Panelists will include the artist; John Motley, past president of the Amistad Center for Art & Culture and of the Wadsworth Museum of Art; and Fiona Vernal, Associate Professor, History and Africana Studies at the University of Connecticut.

Clare Gallery:

The Clare Gallery ministry wishes to Thank All who participated in the 20th Anniversary Celebration on September 30. If you missed the presentation in the church by master woodcarver, Steve Balkun, please go to <https://vimeo.com/871476659> to view a recording.

We are most grateful for the generous donations from parishioners and supporters of the arts to ensure future funding for the ministry of the Gallery.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Hospitality Ministers Needed

Do you enjoy offering hospitality and socializing with our parish community?

Join our team of Community Sunday Evening Edition hosts! This team will serve wine & cheese and other treats after the 5:00 pm Mass on the fourth Sunday of each month, September through May.7

Join a Saturday House of Bread Meal Team

Some of our Saturday lunch House of Bread meal teams are accepting new volunteers! If you desire to offer hospitality to our neighbors in need, and are available from 10:45 am to 1:00 pm on Saturdays, please contact Allison at aholstgrubbe@spsact.org. Meal teams serve 10 or fewer times per year on a rotating schedule.

Weekend Volunteer Opportunities

Weekends at St. Patrick – St. Anthony don't simply "happen". Many volunteers work together to help us gather as a community during and outside of Mass. Please consider whether these volunteer opportunities might be a way for you to share your gifts with us!

- Sacristan at weekend Masses
- Livestream camera operator at 4:00PM or 10:00AM Masses
- Front desk greeter before and during 8:00AM Mass on Sundays
- Front desk greeter 11:00AM to 1:30PM.
- Livestream camera operator at 4:00PM or 10:00AM Masses

For more information, go to www.spsact.org/current-volunteer-opportunities/.

The Solemnity of All Saints and Commemoration of All Souls

We will celebrate the feast of the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1st at 7:30 AM and 12:05 PM. On Thursday, November 2nd, we celebrate the Commemoration of All Souls with Masses at the usual times as well as a special Mass of Remembrance at 7:00 PM to remember those who have died in the past year. We invite everyone to come to this beautiful and moving liturgy. Livestream Available at www.spsact.org

The Annual Ladies Guild Bake & Craft Sale And Teacup Christmas Corner

The Ladies Guild is sponsoring their Annual Bake & Craft Sale and Tea Cup Christmas Corner after all Masses on Saturday, November 11 and Sunday, November 12.

Your support will assist the Guild in its many ministries, in particular, our scholarship fund. Bring home a delicious cake or pie, bread or cookies... and for those "crafty" members of the parish, please share your talent with us. Don't forget to take a chance on the Christmas Corner, once again, offering many exciting prizes.

Prize drawing will be held at the Ladies Guild December 10th Christmas Party.

Come enjoy coffee at Community Sunday and this exciting Ladies Guild Event.

Pope Francis' Prayer for Peace

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried... But our efforts have been in vain.

Now, Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts, and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!"; "With war everything is lost". Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen.

Tuesday Hot Meal:

Did you know...

We have been serving close to 80 meals each week and are always looking for dishes and ingredients and help with prep and serving. The Tuesday meal process starts at 2:00 PM, serving starts at 4:00 PM let us know if you are interested in volunteering for either role!

Pound of Pasta: For each of the following Tuesday pasta dinners there are plenty of opportunities open for folks to drop off a pound of your favorite pasta dish - if you want to drop it off on the week-end before Mass we can pop it in the freezer.

Build community while building a house!

Join others from our SPSA and Franciscan Center Community on Saturdays, November 18 and December 9 from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM. We will be working on a house in Hartford. Specific skills not required, but enthusiasm and a willing to learn are welcome!! If interested in signing up or for more info, contact Sue O'Donnell by going to <https://spsact.org/contact-form-for-habitat-for-humanity/> and filling out the contact form.

Oaxaca, Mexico - December 9 to 16, 2023

St. Francis Builds is headed to Oaxaca, Mexico this Advent from Dec. 9 to 16 and Fr. Mike would like you to join him. The group, along with members of the non profit, Friends of Pimpollo, will help to build a school in Oaxaca. Further information about the organization is found here: www.friendsofpimpollo.org.

If you are over 18 years (or under 18 and accompanied by a parent) and interested in this trip, please contact both Terry Sabonis at: ts428@georgetown.edu and Beth Hood at bhood134@gmail.com or text at 301-578-6150. Se habla espanol.

We would especially love to include first-time volunteers and members of diverse language communities! Trip cost is approximately $1,000, plus airfare; limited scholarships are available.
