

You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment.
The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

The Pastor's Corner

October 29, 2023

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

She's back! After more than a year, the painting of the Blessed Mother in our Chapel of Our Lady of the Angels has been restored and returned to its place on the east wall. You might recall that I had written about the unfortunate fall the painting took in October of last year. Sometime during the night, the wire on the back of the frame came loose, and the painting – in its heavy, ornate frame – fell to the floor, setting off the alarm system. The painting itself was not badly damaged, but the frame was, requiring professional repair and restoration.

Eventually we located Vladimir Dumansky, a native of Ukraine, who operates a studio in Bloomfield where he restores art works, mainly paintings. Our painting was delivered to him in December 2022, and after a long wait, it was returned on October 17th. I am grateful to our parishioners, Steve Balkun and Michael Boone, who worked to rehang the painting – very securely! – in its usual location.

I am also very grateful to Jacqueline (Jackie) Wilson and her family for their generous gift which enabled us to restore the painting. I met Jackie back in May and I talked with her about what happened to the painting, and she responded with a gift that covered the cost of the restoration. Sadly, Jackie died a few months later, so she will not be able to see the fruit of her generosity.

Our painting is a very fine copy of Bartolomé Estaban Murillo's "Immaculate Conception of El Escorial" which is now in the Prado Museum in Madrid, Spain. Painted between 1660 and 1665, it was purchased by Charles III in Seville. It was then part of the collection of Charles IV, after which it was listed among his collections in the Casita del Príncipe in the Escorial, the monastery and royal residence outside Madrid. I would be very interested in knowing how this particular piece came to St. Patrick-St. Anthony. If anyone has any knowledge of when it was acquired, please let me know!

This coming week we will celebrate All Saints Day on Wednesday, November 1st, with Masses at 7:30 AM and 12:05 PM. On Thursday, November 2nd, we observe All Souls Day. In addition to our regular Masses, we will celebrate our annual Mass of Remembrance at 7:00 PM for parishioners or family members of parishioners who died during the past year. This Mass has become a treasured part of the life of our parish, and this year the Requiem of Maurice Duruflé will be sung by our choirs under the direction of Dr. Gabriel Löfvall, with Dr. Ezequiel Menendez accompanying on the organ. Afterwards, everyone is invited into the friary gardens to walk among the memorial lanterns as well as to enjoy some light refreshments in the Friary Meeting Room.

Several parishioners have asked me about how we can respond to the conflict in the Middle East between Israel and Hamas. We are working to integrate prayer, education and dialog as a way for all of us to understand the current the situation, and how each of us might be able to contribute to a more peaceful world. So stay tuned!

Please continue to send your photos for our Parish Christmas Tree. I think the photo ornaments will be the highlight of our Christmas decor! Email your digital file to tshreenan@gmail.com and please include the names of the individuals in the photo. We can also scan a print photo if you prefer.

Praying with Sacred Scripture

Wednesdays, November 1 & 15, 7:00-8:00 PM in-person.

Please consider joining us for "lectio divina" (divine reading.) It is a prayerful reading of a bible passage in order to discern its message for each of us today. We have found that meeting in person gives the experience greater intimacy and impact. If you haven't tried it yet, please do! The process is simple and will be explained each time, and sharing is welcome, but optional.

Co-facilitators: Sheila Denion and John Lemega

Royal Psalms: The "Anointed One"

Thursdays on Zoom, November 2, 9, 16, 30 and December 7, 14
10:30-11:30 AM

"You are my child, today I have become your Father" (Ps 2, verse 2b). While the Christian expectation of the Messiah is fulfilled in Jesus, the reference to the Messiah in the psalms is attached to the "anointed one" of the Davidic line of kings. While YHWH is king of all creation and reigns with divine power from heaven, his "anointed one" rules on earth under YHWH's protection and instruction. In this series, we will discuss the figure of the "anointed one" as he appears in the psalms.

Please register and receive the Zoom link by going to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Royal-Psalms>

Presenter: Fr. Francis Soucy, OFM

Drumming Circle:

Mondays, November 6, December 4
6:30 to 7:30 PM in the church

Did you know that drumming is good for the spirit as well as the heart and mind! Please join us for an evening of African drumming rhythms once a month in the church. Anyone can learn to drum - no musical experience is needed. If you have a drum, please bring it with you. Let us know if you need a drum by calling the parish office, 860-756-4034. First-time participants, please arrive by 6:15 PM.

Advent Daytime Retreat:

The Art of the Jesse Tree

Tuesday, December 5

Begin your Advent Retreat Day with our 12:05 Mass.

Come over to the Franciscan Center for a light lunch from 12:30-1:00 PM.

The presentation and prayer will take place in the Center from 1:00-4:00 PM.

Along with the Advent wreath and Advent calendar, the Jesse Tree is a popular tradition of the season in which we prepare for the birth of Jesus. Dating back to the Middle Ages, the Jesse Tree is a representation of the ancestors of Jesus, taking its name from the prophecy of Isaiah (11:1): "A shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom." Join us for an afternoon in early Advent as we explore the various ways in which the Jesse Tree has been pictured from the Middle Ages to the present day in illuminated manuscripts, stained glass windows, painting, and sculpture. Afterwards, we will create our own Jesse Tree with specially designed "ornaments" representing the men and women who figured prominently in the history of ancient Israel, leading to Joseph and Mary and the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem.

Presenter: Fr. Tim Shreenan, O.F.M.

$25.00 includes lunch; please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Jesse-Lunch> to register.

$20.00 for presentation only; please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Jesse-NL> to register.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Join this wonderful and prayerful ministry.

Our next meetings:

Monday, November 13, 10:30 AM to 12:00 PM

Clare Gallery's new exhibit!

Clare Gallery's final 20th Anniversary exhibition, Color and Identity: A Visual Conversation, reveals national artist Stanwyck Cromwell's ongoing artistic journey. Cromwell is originally from Guyana. His artwork is a visual representation of the nostalgic memories of his Guyanese home, Caribbean influences of the West Indies (including its spirituality), as well as his experiences living in New England - specifically Hartford, CT. He has a love and respect for the West End community in Hartford and teaching at The Artists Collective and Capital Community College. He immigrated as a young man and states, "I grew up in a time when you worked hard and your word was your bond." He associated with people from all walks of life. Those unique and varied conversations have made their way into his work. The artworks are rich hybrid abstract expressions of his Guyanese home blended with his American experiences. Cromwell states: "Even though I left home, I never left home."

A panel discussion: Sunday, November 19, 1-2 PM.

Panelists will include the artist; John Motley, past president of the Amistad Center for Art & Culture and of the Wadsworth Museum of Art; and Fiona Vernal, Associate Professor, History and Africana Studies at the University of Connecticut.

Church Temperature Advisory

We will be switching over to our heating system on November 1st. It may be a bit nippy during Masses this weekend. You may want to bring your coats with you.

Sunday, October 29 - 9:15 am to 11:30ish, outdoors We will need 3 people to lay out the grid pattern and secure the lantern bases into the ground.

Sunday, October 29 - 9:15 am to 11:30ish, indoors We will need 3-5 individuals to unpack the lanterns, wipe them down, test the lantern "caps" to see whether the screws will work and clean up of any old labels.

Wednesday, November 1st 12:40 (after the 12:05 mass) outdoor and indoor opportunities. We will need 2-4 people to place the lanterns in the bases, 1 person to manage and supervise the placement in alphabetic order outside, 1 person to manage the labelling order inside, 2-3 people inside to light candles, place them in the lanterns, secure the lids.

Please let us know if you are available to help - even if you can only commit an hour after mass that would be wonderful!

Weekends at St. Patrick – St. Anthony don't simply "happen". Many volunteers work together to help us gather as a community during and outside of Mass. Please consider whether these volunteer opportunities might be a way for you to share your gifts with us!

- Sacristan at weekend Masses
- Livestream camera operator at 4:00PM or 10:00AM Masses
- Front desk greeter in the church office before and during 8:00AM Mass on Sundays.
- Front desk greeter in office from 11:00AM to 1:30PM.

We encourage anyone coping with chronic illness or disease (heart, cancer, respiratory ailments, diabetes, etc.); those with the disease of alcoholism or other addictions; those suffering from any mental health issues; anyone facing surgery; those experiencing aging with its limitations, fears and isolation; or any others who are seriously ill to join us together with family members and caregivers that day.

Pope Francis' Prayer for Peace

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried... But our efforts have been in vain.

Now, Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts, and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!"; "With war everything is lost". Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen.
