

Palm Sunday Food Drive 2024

to support House of Bread and Hands on Hartford

“Hartford has a Food Insecurity Rate of 19.3% - the highest percentage in the State, higher than New Haven, New London, Waterbury and Bridgeport.” - CT Food Share

Want to participate? Please fill a durable bag or box with these items:

- All items can be purchased at Aldi's for $30 (a little more for Fair Trade coffee)
- Multiples of some items (cereal, granola bars, tuna, pasta) or the addition of grape jelly are welcome as a bonus for the families.
- We ask that you bring your donation in a durable box or reinforced bag.
- If you cannot purchase everything on the list, please prioritize cans of chicken or tuna, peanut butter, or coffee.

- | | | | |
|--------------------------|------------------|--------------------------|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | peanut butter | <input type="checkbox"/> | cereal |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | rice | <input type="checkbox"/> | granola bars |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | dried beans | <input type="checkbox"/> | ground coffee |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | pasta | <input type="checkbox"/> | sugar |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | pasta sauce | <input type="checkbox"/> | canned vegetables |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | tuna | | (string beans, corn, black beans, kidney beans, etc. - pop top cans
preferred) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | chicken in a can | | |

- If you are able to add in an Easter treat, or grape jelly, it will be much appreciated by the families.

All items collected will be given directly to a local family in need.

Donation drop off:

Saturday, March 23, 3:30-4:00 pm

OR

Sunday, March 24, 9:00 am - 12:00 pm, 4:30-5:00 pm

Volunteers will be curbside to accept donations.

