The Pastor's Corner

June 23, 2024

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Most of the fourth chapter of the Gospel of Mark is a series of “seed” parables, one of which we heard last Sunday about the mustard seed as a metaphor for the growth of the kingdom of God. The chapter ends with the story of Jesus calming the storm on the Sea of Galilee.

One commentary on this chapter explains how Jesus himself becomes a living parable, revealing himself as God who has power over creation. In the psalms we read: “Lord, God of hosts, who is like you? You rule the raging sea; you still its swelling waves” (Ps. 89:9-10); “You still the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves” (Ps. 65:8). In other words, when the disciples asked themselves, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” they might have glimpsed an answer in their memory of these psalms.

The whole point of the account of the storm at sea is to help us realize that Jesus knows our fears and anxieties, and he is there to calm us down and bring peace to our troubled hearts and souls. In this weekend’s final hymn, we sing “No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I’m clinging. Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing?”

It is always a test of our faith when we are faced with sudden crises, and those come in many different forms: a sudden change of health; loss of a job; a broken relationship, etc. Perhaps our fear is based on the unknown, like waiting for a medical procedure or test results. Sometimes our fear rises from the mistakes we’ve made, wondering if the past can ever be rectified. The good news is that we are never alone with our worries or fears as long as we continue to believe that the Lord is holding our hand along the way.

As we move into “high summer” mode, I hope you will have the opportunity to spend time at your favorite vacation spot – as I will for a week coming soon. Safe travels, wherever they lead you!

Blessings on your week ahead!

On Sunday, June 30, our parish will initiate its annual and only fund-raising campaign, “Christmas in July,” to support our more than 20-year covenant between our parish and the St. Genevieve parish and school in Haiti. The “Christmas in July” campaign reminds us in the middle of the year what the birth of Jesus stands for back in December. In another way, it is an opportunity for us to “recharge our spiritual and charitable batteries.”

We are all aware of the intolerable social and political turmoil in Haiti. Despite these horrible conditions, our continued support through our “Christmas in July” campaign brings much-needed economic, social, and personal relief from the threats of violence and economic hardship. Most importantly our contributions sustain our mutual hope for eventual peace.

We can sustain this goal by continuing to support the education of 400 children, provide a high protein lunch for the children, and financial support for teacher salaries with appreciation for their continued service during a very difficult time. Father Gabby uses any remaining funds to support some very impoverished and elderly parishioners who have no other means to survive. In addition to these efforts, we recently learned that the basic medical services available to St. Genevieve families are threatened by loss of staff and funding formerly provided by other U.S. parishes. We would like to explore with Father Gabby how we can help to fill this gap to provide families with access to vaccinations and other very basic medical care.

As a parish community, we do all this and fight against the inhumanity and terror experienced by our St. Genevieve families. May their hearts in Haiti continue to hope in God’s love.

Is our Church Still Relevant Today?

Perhaps you have heard the question circulating among Catholics, "Is our Church still relevant in our society today?"

We propose this answer: The Church as the People of God, enlivened through our Baptism, is called to vibrant, relevant living based on Gospel values which speak words of hope and comfort to those afflicted, and words of truth and integrity to those who serve and lead.

When we fully comprehend our own inherent dignity and rightful empowerment through the Holy Spirit, stagnation will not be an option. Our ongoing response to the gifts of this first Sacrament refreshes our own lives, our parish, and all of society. Please join us this summer for three reflection sessions immediately following the 12:05 Mass on Wednesdays in the church:

July 24: "Anointed for Mission"

July 31: "Discipleship": Enriching Relationships and Growing in Holiness

August 7: "Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors": Living into our Motto

Together we will explore anew and reclaim this incredible gift and grace given at Baptism.

Presenters: Patricia Curtis and LouAnn Warren

Pasta Tuesday: We are always in need of one pound trays of baked pasta - ziti, meat sauce and pasta, creamy chicken and broccoli - your choice. Baked pasta dishes can be frozen so if you prefer to deliver after your favorite Sunday mass that is always an option or any time before 2 pm on Tuesdays.

Warm Meal Thursday: We are looking for salads filled with fresh veggies; select a couple different veggies, add pasta and a non-mayo dressing.

Women of Hope Ministry

It has been an interesting few weeks of news from the Vatican regarding two particular groups of people at the center of our parish Synod report, the national reports, and even the universal Synod report presented to Pope Francis in 2022-23. Statements about women and the LGBTQ+ community from Pope Francis have caused confusion and consternation. Perhaps you have felt it, too.

Our Women of Hope Ministry spent time last week discussing the Pope's emphatic 'no' when asked if women could be ordained deacons. Wasn't this topic under serious consideration in the Synod gathering in October 2023 because it had been raised in Synod listening sessions around the globe? Weren't we all encouraged to spend the year continuing to study the historical evidence of women serving faith communities as ordained deacons in the early church? If so, then why today's 'no'?

We are still in the Synod process and Synod delegates will gather again this October. If the answer has already been decided, why allow hope to build that change could be on the horizon? Why not hold true to the synodal spirit of deep listening while walking together and allow for the unfolding of dialogue and making room for the Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us?

As Women of Hope, we have decided to move forward with our Summer/Fall/Advent plans and invite all to stand with us and join in gatherings of discussion, prayer and reflection. The grace of Baptism fills us - all of us - with dignity and gifts to be shared for the good of all.

We will commence Evenings of Prayer this summer around topics such as building a culture of peace, cultural diversity in friendship, and non-violence.

Then, please save the date of Saturday, September 28 from 12:30 to 4:00 PM to welcome Christine Schenk, CSJ for an afternoon of presentation, prayer and discussion. Her focus will be: *What Does the Countercultural Witness of Early "Mothers of the Church" Call Us to Today?

Christine Schenk, CSJ has worked as a nurse midwife to low-income families, a community organizer, an award-winning writer-researcher, and the founding director of an international church reform organization, FutureChurch. Her first book Crispina and Her Sisters: Women and Authority in Early Christianity

(Fortress Press, 2017) received a first place in history from the Catholic Press Association and her most recent work, To Speak the Truth in Love: A Biography of Sr. Theresa Kane RSM (OrbisBooks 2019) received first place awards from The Association of Catholic Publishers and the Catholic Press Association. She writes a regular column for the National Catholic Reporter and is one of three nuns featured in the award-winning documentary Radical Grace.

Detailed information about all programming offered through Women of Hope Ministry will be forthcoming in parish-wide emails and bulletins. Be sure to look for it and register. Feel free to bring neighbors, friends, family members or colleagues.

All are Welcome!
