The Pastor's Corner

October 27, 2024

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

At our weekly staff meeting this past Tuesday, all of us were somewhat awed by the number of activities that are taking place here during these autumn months. Not a single week seems to go by without several parish-wide events taking place. First, I'd like to highlight the response to our Ministry Fair which was held after all the Masses last weekend, October 19-20. Many of you not only visited the various exhibits, but also signed up to find out more about getting involved in the ministries of the parish and the outreach programs of the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry. My thanks to Allison Holst-Grubbe and her team for preparing the exhibits and making sure they were staffed.

I'd like to highlight some of the upcoming events, beginning with our annual Mass of Remembrance on the eve of All Souls Day: Friday, November 1st, at 7:00 PM. This is a special time to lovingly remember those parishioners who died during the past year. Memorial candles with the names of the deceased will be placed in the gardens next to the church. I hope you will join us for this beautiful liturgy of remembrance.

Next Sunday, November 3rd, we will host a brunch for new members of our parish to acquaint them with the St. Patrick-St. Anthony community and offer them the opportunity to learn something of our history and make them feel welcome in their spiritual home.

On Sunday, November 10th, our Open Hearts LGBTQ+ and Friends & Family Ministries will host a hybrid in-person & Zoom meeting with four trans women who met Pope Francis at the Vatican. You will find more information about this event in upcoming emails and next week's bulletin.

On Monday, November 18th, we will have a special service after the 12:05 Mass to pray for vocations, both live and on live-stream.

Our annual Turkey Drive will be held on Sunday, November 17th, together with the Thanksgiving Day food preparation taking place on November 28th.

Clare Gallery's New exhibit: Divine Cosmos

Connecticut artist, Jill Harrington Nichols, will close the Clare Gallery's 2024 season, which was focused on the environment, with Divine Cosmos. The exhibition celebrates the heart, soul, and beauty that connects us all. Lyrical compositions of color and light transcribe the visible and invisible, the unseen, the other, the divine in all things. The artist's painting surfaces of reclaimed metals (aluminum, steel, or copper) forged from the earth's crust combined with her subject matter—clouds, water, and the outer expanses of our universe—speak to balance, unity, and inclusion of the sacred feminine. The Gallery will be hosting an artist talk and reception on Sunday, October 27. The artist talk is 12:30–1:30 p.m., with a reception to follow. The public is welcome to attend. Nichols' work is in international collections including those of a former FBI director, a U.S congressman, Yale Medical, and the Vatican. Her paintings have appeared as scenic design for the CBS news show, "Face the Nation." Archival prints (mounted on copper) of her works, Phi and Juno, are installed in the Vatican Observatory Museum in a gallery dedicated to astronomical art. Clare Gallery's Divine Cosmos exhibition will include both original paintings, Phi and Juno.

Psalms of Thanksgiving

Thursdays, November 14, 21; 10:30 to 11:30 AM.

A profitable way to celebrate Thanksgiving in addition to feasting on turkey is to reflect on psalms that concentrate on thanking God for God's many gifts. Among the psalms of Thanksgiving we will discuss are three prominent ones: 39, 34, and 40. These psalms help us to open our hearts to God's gifts. Presenter: Fr. Francis Soucy, OFM. Free Will Offering

Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry Receives $7,500 in Funding from Archbishop’s Annual Appeal

Since 1981, the Archbishop’s Annual Appeal has assisted countless people – regardless of race, religion, or color – across the Archdiocese of Hartford with health care, education, housing, emergency expenses, and in numerous other areas.

This year, the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry received a check in the amount of $7,500 from the Archbishop’s Annual Appeal.

This grant will be used directly to continue the work for which we are called —to feed the hungry, to offer comfort to the weary, and to serve all who come to our doors seeking nourishment, both of body and spirit. Specifically, this funding will help us feed the hungry who come to our doors for dinner 365 days of the year.

We are in “challenging times when homelessness continues to rise in Hartford for the third consecutive year,” says Fr. Mike Johnson, O.F.M., Executive Director of the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry, “the increasing costs of rent, electricity, and food have pushed many into severe food insecurity. Even those who remain housed struggle to meet the basic needs of daily life.” The Franciscan Center serves dinner 365 days a year, and has experienced a sharp increase in the number of meals provided, for example, in September 2024, we served over 1,000 more meals than in the same month last year.

$1,500 of those funds was earmarked for Catherine’s Place where we continue to provide transitional housing for men in the Open Hearth Program.

About the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry

The Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry at St. Patrick - St. Anthony Church is the home of the Sandwich Ministry, which serves the hungry of Hartford by serving dinner 365 days of the year. The work of the Franciscan Center is to help a diverse population of the poor, the alienated, and the marginalized - to feed the hungry, to offer comfort to the weary, and to serve all who come to our doors seeking nourishment, both of body and spirit. Volunteers from all over the region give their time and talent to help alleviate food insecurity, housing insecurity, and to work for justice by advocating for a better world.

For more information about the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry and its efforts, visit www.spsact.org/franciscan-center or call 860-756-4056.
