The Pastor's Corner

November 10, 2024

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I have received many positive comments about the homily I gave last weekend on the Gospel account of the greatest commandment, and how we are called to love our neighbor as ourselves. Many people told me that it was a message we need to hear at times, but especially at this particular moment. Although I am writing this message on Election Day Eve, I hope that our nation, guided by over 200 years of democratic ideals, will find healing and unity going forward. May our better angels guide us away from the animosity which has been so prevalent in our society, and give us hope for a more promising future. In part, this is what I said:

“Our Franciscan brother, Roberto Gonzalez, the Archbishop of San Juan, Puerto Rico, wrote an open letter this past week, condemning a “joke” made at a rally in Madison Square Garden by a so-called comedian who referred to Puerto Rico as an island of garbage. Archbishop Roberto said that the comedian’s remarks “do not promote a climate of equality, fraternity, and goodwill among and for all women and men of every race, color, and way of life, which is the foundation of the American dream . . . These kinds of remarks should not be a part of the political discourse of a civilized society.”

I firmly agree with the Archbishop, and I hope you do as well. Our Christian principles and ethics are being put to the test as never before. The language of hatred is all too prevalent in our society today, from political speech to online bullying. It seems that many people who call themselves Christian have forgotten the Biblical mandate to love one another, and that one’s neighbor isn’t just the person who looks and acts just like them, but who is a fellow human being, deserving of respect.

If our nation wishes to have a long life and to grow and prosper as Moses envisioned for the ancient Israelites, then we must find ways to put the commandments to love God and our neighbor into concrete action, not by mere lip service, but by turning away from attitudes of racism and superiority or by treating one another as “other.” Instead, let us try to put the “us” back into the U.S.”

Praying for Vocations

Our parish’s Vocations Awareness Committee invites you to join us for a brief service of prayer following the 12:05 PM Mass on Monday, November 18, 2024 in the church. It will also be live-streamed. Since its formation earlier this year, our Vocations

Awareness Committee (Pat Curtis, Carole Fay, Ron and Joan Osella, Ryan Ochoa, and Sr. Barbara-Jean Kubik) has given us many opportunities to learn about the various ways in which a vocation may be lived out, whether it be in chosen commitments and employment, the priesthood or diaconate, religious life, marriage, the single life, or as a lay associate of a religious community.

Let us come together and spend a few moments in prayer so that all of us, especially our young people, may be open to the movement of the Holy Spirit, and to serve the church in whatever manner we may be called to do so.

Psalms of Thanksgiving

Thursdays, November 14, 21; 10:30 to 11:30 AM.

A profitable way to celebrate Thanksgiving in addition to feasting on turkey is to reflect on psalms that concentrate on thanking God for God's many gifts. Among the psalms of Thanksgiving we will discuss are three prominent ones: 39, 34, and 40. These psalms help us to open our hearts to God's gifts. Presenter: Fr. Francis Soucy, OFM. Free Will Offering

Prayer of Lamentation and Hope

Wednesday, November 20, 2024, at 1:00 PM in the church.

The language of the prophets was often that of a lament: an expression of grief, loss and sorrow. The prophets expressed the desolation and alienation of the people of God throughout their history. At the same time, their proclamations would pass over into an affirmation that God would hear their cry for help and that deliverance would be forthcoming.

This prayer service is based on the concept of lament and includes 4 contemporary laments addressing the suffering in Ukraine, the Middle East, Haiti and Sudan. We, as a Church community, have been praying for the people living in these areas for weeks now as part of our Prayer of the Faithful during weekend Masses. The 4 contemporary laments have been composed by members of this parish.

Please join us in prayer and song in-person or via live-stream.

Reception at the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry immediately following the service.

Sponsored by our Committee for Social Justice, Women of Hope and Sister Parish Ministries. For more information, please call the Parish Office at 860-756-4034.
