The Pastor's Corner

December 15, 2024

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Perhaps one of my favorite prayers in the Mass is the one which follows the Our Father. Technically, it's called the "embolism" – an insertion added to the Lord's Prayer. Here is the text the celebrant recites:

"Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ."

This prayer has a definite Advent ring to it: "as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ." However, I have to admit that I prefer the older translation that said: "Protect us from all anxiety as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ."

We live in a world full of anxiety and even fear, though most of us live peacefully and productively. Nonetheless, many people in other parts of the world struggle to survive against a background of war and violence. We pray for them every week: people in Ukraine, the Middle East, Haiti and Sudan.

This coming Tuesday, December 17th, we will have the opportunity to come together in prayer and song, and join our hearts in union with those who are suffering, as well as those who simply need our prayerful support. "Advent Hope for a Weary World" will be our way of waiting in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior at Christmas. The service begins at 7:00 PM in the church, and everyone is invited.

The year 2025 has been designated by Pope Francis as a Jubilee Year of Hope, with the motto "Hope does not disappoint," taken from St. Paul's letter to the Romans (5:5). We will mark the start of the year by coming together in a spirit of hope that God will guide us, our nation, and the world into the future.

Blessings on your week ahead!

Prayer Squares for Peace

In his November 12th Pastor's Column in the bulletin, Father Tim wrote:

"It seems that, for the past several years, Advent has begun under a strange set of circumstances. In 2020 we were still dealing with uncertainties of the pandemic . . . Last year Advent began under the cloud of war in the Middle East. This year, we begin Advent with the country preparing for a new Presidential administration. Each of these circumstances have instilled a certain amount of uncertainty in all of us."

Prayer Shawl Ministers often have one response to times of "uncertainty": knit or crochet!

At the height of the Covid pandemic, over 3,000 Prayer Squares were created by our ministers and offered to first-responders, those in hospitals, nursing homes, soup kitchens, etc. with a reassuring prayer for God's accompaniment and support from our faith community.

Small knitted or crocheted colorful squares made with love, sent out with prayer, had quite an impact on both the makers and the receivers.

Now, at the beginning of 2025, the Prayer Shawl Ministry will once again step forward. At the January and February Community Sundays, ministers will be available to teach how to knit or crochet simple squares. The ministry feels it is the right time to invite parishioners to take and/or to make Prayer Squares for Peace and distribute them throughout Lent.

Hamden Food Pantry Provides Assistance for Individuals, Families in Need

A homeless woman with a shopping cart was sitting in the back of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Hamden at morning Mass. When Father Christopher Tiano, pastor, spotted her, he asked Lorraine DeNicola, coordinator of a food pantry, to help.

"Her name was Mary, and she had a black eye," DeNicola recalled. "She got hurt defending herself at a place where she stayed, and she needed food, so I drove her to the pantry. She had lost her job and could no longer work. She took enough for herself and a few others."

People in need, who are suffering from food insecurity, come to the pantry on the campus of Blessed Sacrament Church at 322 Circular Ave., on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. The ministry is part of St. Paul VI Parish, which includes Blessed Sacrament, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, St. Rita and Ascension churches.
