We are a welcoming and dynamic community of Christian disciples. Rooted in the Franciscan experience of the Roman Catholic tradition, we proactively endeavor to extend hospitality both at the Eucharistic Table and as we minister reciprocally and in solidarity among the alienated and the poor, nurturing the mind, body, and spirit in the Greater Hartford Community. All are welcome!

The Pastor's Corner

February 9, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Time for another art history lesson! Recently I had the opportunity to get down to New York City just days before the close of an exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art which I had been eager to see: "Siena: The Rise of Painting, 1300-1350."

It was a beautiful exhibit with lots to see, along with lots of fellow museum patrons! However, the catalog had arrived a few days before my trip, so I had time to acquaint myself with some of the many objects, including small panel paintings, carvings, large altar pieces, devotional objects, liturgical items, manuscripts (!), and textiles. I'd like to share with you some of my favorite items.

Duccio di Buoninsegna (1278-1319) created a mammoth altar piece in 1308 for the Duomo, or Cathedral, in Siena called the Maestà. It consists of many paintings which illustrate the life of both the Blessed Mother and Jesus Christ. Beginning in the late 1700's, the Maestà was gradually taken apart with various pieces being sold to museums around the world. Several paintings which formed the praedella, or bottom row of images, were in the exhibition, including the one pictured here:

Jesus Calling the Disciples Peter and Andrew, which is featured on the cover of today's songsheet. Each of the panels are about 2-feet square, and they were mounted on both the front and back of the Maestà. I can only imagine the impression this great work must have made when it was first created.

One of the lovely small devotional works in the exhibit was one painted by Lippo Memmi (1317-1350), titled The Virgin and Child with Saints and Angels. Standing approximately 2-feet tall, this work is notable for the inclusion of several Franciscan saints. The figure of the Blessed Virgin Mary is flanked by small images of St. John the Baptist and St. Francis of Assisi. Across the bottom are images of several more saints, including St. Clare of Assisi and the Franciscan bishop, St. Louis of Toulouse.

One final piece, near the end of the exhibit, caught my attention by Jesus's somewhat insolent pose in Simone Martini's Christ discovered in the Temple. Martini (c. 1284-1344) was a Sienese native. This work, however, was painted in Avignon in France, where the papal court was in exile from Rome.

While I was viewing this particular painting, I mentioned to a lady who was standing next to me, "Hm, typical teenager with his arms crossed and a look of defiance on his face." She responded, "But he has a halo!" I didn't say anything in response, but the look of anger on Joseph's face will tell you all you need to know: even the Holy Family had its moments.

I hope you enjoyed this little retrospective of "Siena: The Rise of Painting." It was a blessing to engage with some of the great artistic achievements of the Middle Ages. Blessings on your week ahead!

Pastor

Prayer Squares for Peace

Prayer Shawl Ministers often have one response to times of "uncertainty": knit!

Join us for our second session at the February 9th Community Sunday. Ministers will be available to teach how to start knitting these simple squares. The ministry feels it is the right time to invite parishioners to take and/or to make Prayers Squares for Peace and distribute them throughout Lent. Two different prayers are available to accompany the Prayer Square.

Open Hearts Ministry

Monthly Open Hearts Meeting: The next meeting is scheduled for February 9, 2025 from 3:00 to 4:30 PM in the Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry. All Are Welcome. Please join us.

Friends and Family Ministry: Our next meeting will take place on Sunday, February 16, 2025 at 3:30 PM in the Franciscan Center. Our group provides support and guidance to parents, friends and allies of our LGBTQ+ brothers and sisters. Please contact either Tim Curran (timothy.curran@trincoll.edu) or Rich Broggini (richardbroggini@gmail.com) for more information.

"Got HOPE?"

We still have one session available for you to join us as we consider the message and impact of Hope upon ourselves and our world. We'll look at scripture, writings from civil rights activists, and religious leaders of our time to stimulate our ponderings and conversation.

Tuesday evening, February 11 at 7:00 PM

Why in the evenings? So that all parishioners, those working and those retired, have the opportunity to join in.

Why virtually on Zoom? Because our parishioners travel from over 120 different zip codes... because winter weather might blow in and we'll still be able to keep our scheduled gatherings.

Why these dates? There are no conflicts with UCONN Women's and Men's Basketball Games!

We look forward to spending this time with YOU! Go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-AFF-Got-Hope> to register for the Zoom link.

Holy Week & Easter - A Time for Healing

Thursday, April 10 from 6:30-8:00 pm.

Jesus was a remarkable healer. For much of his public ministry, he was surrounded by human need. Crowds followed him wherever he went, pressing in on him, asking for healing. We too seek out this healer from Nazareth and long to encounter him. Join us for an Evening of Reflection on the cusp of Holy Week as together we reflect on how Jesus is still very much with us, healing and transforming us through his compassionate life, his saving death, and his glorious resurrection.

Presenter: Amy Ekeh

Suggested Offering: $15.00

Amy Ekeh is a Scripture instructor, retreat director and Associate Editor at Little Rock Scripture Study. Amy's work has been published in a variety of Catholic publications, including St. Anthony Messenger, Catechist Magazine, The Bible Today and Magnificat.

Her latest book is Stretch Out Your Hand: Reflections on the Healing Ministry of Jesus. Amy is also the author of Come to Me, All of You: Stations of the Cross in the Voice of Christ, a 2024 Association of Catholic Publishers award-winner.

Amy has a B.A. in Theology from the University of Dallas and a M.A. in Theology from The Catholic University of America. She lives in Connecticut with her husband and four children.

PRAYERS FOR PRIESTS AND DECONS

Monthly Calendar helps people develop ongoing prayers for men who answer God's call.

Story by Karen A. Avitabile

Anna Maria Dias calls herself a "prayer warrior" and welcomes others to join her.

For the past 10 years, she has designed prayer calendars which includes the names of priests of the Archdiocese of Hartford. In addition, she designs a separate calendar each month for the deacons of the archdiocese. The calendars are distributed through email.

"I never heard of anyone saying they pray for priests," Dias says. "be thought of praying for priests was foreign to me."

The goal of the calendars, she says, is to keep the ministry of the priesthood and diaconate in everyone's heart and mind.

They see the struggles and everything the people deal with every day," Dias says. "It's a lot of burden to carry."

To be placed on the distribution list for the monthly prayer calendars for priests and deacons, email Dias at faithfirst@1791.com.

"Doing the calendar gives me peace to know I'm trying to help the priests with prayers," she says. "It keeps my mind focused."

Download the February calendars at www.archdioceseofhartford.org/catholictranscript.
