The Pastor's Corner

March 16, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Last weekend's farewell to our Director of Music Ministry, Gabriel Löfvall, was a mix of emotion and overwhelming gratitude for the more than 15 years he gave to our parish. This weekend he begins his tenure at St. Joseph Cathedral, for which we offer our prayers and best wishes for his success.

As I mentioned in my letter a month ago when I announced Gabe's impending departure, we have formed a search committee to find his replacement. The committee consists of Zachary Gilbert and Allison Holst-Grubbe, both choir members and cantors; Beverly Boyle and Joanne Huelsman, also members of the Gallery Choir; Marc Sherer, a parish trustee; and myself.

The search committee has held two meetings so far, and we have finalized a job description and an advertisement which will be placed in various professional music websites such as the American Guild of Organists and the National Association of Pastoral Musicians, as well as various other publications. The deadline for submission of applications will be April 30, and auditions will take place some time in June before the end of the choir season.

During this interim period, the Gallery Choir will be directed by Meredith Neumann; the Treble Clef Choir will be under the direction of Benjamin Rauch; and the Bass Clef Choir will be led by Michelle Horsley; our organists will include Madison Thompson, Martin Smith and Ezequiel Menendez. I hope that our excellent music ministry will continue without undue interruption during this period of transition.

Blessings on your week ahead!

New Podcast from Fr. Mike: From Ashes to Alleluia: A Franciscan Lenten Journey

Lent isn't about giving up coffee or skipping dessert. It's about waking up. It's about shaking off fear, stepping out of hesitation, and letting God's grace break through the walls we didn't even realize we built.

Join Mike Johnson, OFM, for From Ashes to Alleluia, a daily Lenten podcast that meets us in the raw, messy, beautiful reality of life. Through Scripture, the wisdom of St. Francis and St. Clare, and the honest struggles we all face, this journey isn't about surviving Lent—it's about letting it transform us. It's about moving from ashes to alleluia, from holding back to stepping fully into the life God dreams for us.

MARCH 15 - 21, 2025

NEW PILGRIM ICON DEPICTS IMAGE OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

- Story by Karen A. Avitabile

A reproduction image of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is making its way around the world and may be viewed in parishes in the Archdiocese of Hartford this year.

This reproduction is one of more than 300 icons, each bearing the Apostolic Blessing of Pope Francis. It is the most recent addition to the Knights of Columbus traveling pilgrim icon program. The icons are currently traveling around the world as part of the Knights of Columbus Pilgrim icon program.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus pilgrim icon program was launched by the Knights of Columbus on Jan. 3 at St. Mary Church, part of Blessed Michael McGivney Parish in New Haven. During that prayer service, an icon depicting the most famous image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus -- painted by Pompeo Batoni in 1767 and now venerated in the Church of the Gesù in Rome -- was displayed for veneration. It bears the blessing of Pope Francis through the Papal Almoner.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus pilgrim icon program also coincides with the 350th anniversary of the visions of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French Catholic nun who gave the Church the Twelve Promises of the Sacred Heart and the First Friday devotions.

In one of the apparitions, Jesus Christ told Alacoque: "Behold this Heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing, even to exhausting and consuming itself, in order to testify its love." This quote is central to the Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic devotion. The heart refers to Jesus' physical heart and his boundless love for mankind.

Pope Clement XIII officially recognized and approved the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in 1765, some 75 years after St. Alacoque's death. In 1920, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was canonized by Pope Benedict XV. Today, she is recognized as the patron saint of people who suffer from polio, the loss of a parent and those who devote themselves to the Sacred Heart.

The publication of the fourth encyclical of Pope Francis, Dilexit Nos (He Loved Us), is devoted to the Sacred Heart. "In many ways, Dilexit Nos can serve as a mission statement for the Knights of Columbus in today's world," Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly says.

"The pope observes that we live in a fragmented and divided society, but the heart of Christ is a unifying center. It is the source of truth and goodness that we all need."

Archdiocese of Hartford priest and Knights' founder Blessed Michael J. McGivney was deeply devoted to the Sacred Heart. His family displayed an ornate devotional plaque of the Sacred Heart in their Waterbury home. The plaque is still in the Knights' possession and is on display in the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center in New Haven.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the 20th traveling pilgrim icon venerated through the Knights' program since its formation in 1979. Our Lady of Guadalupe was the first pilgrim icon. Since then, the program has enabled more than 23 million people to honor Our Lord, Our Lady and the saints.

Parishes in the Archdiocese of Hartford should contact their local Knights of Columbus council to host the icon for veneration and schedule a Sacred Heart holy hour. For more information about the Knights of Columbus pilgrim icon program, visit kofc.org/sacredheart.
