Open Doors*

We are a welcoming and dynamic community of Christian disciples. Rooted in the Franciscan experience of the Roman Catholic tradition, we proactively endeavor to extend hospitality both at the Eucharistic Table and as we minister reciprocally and in solidarity among the alienated and the poor, nurturing the mind, body, and spirit in the Greater Hartford Community. All are welcome!

The Pastor's Corner

March 23, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am delighted to share with you this photo of Pamela Morrison-Wolf, this year's recipient from the parish of St.

Patrick-St. Anthony of the St. Joseph Medal of Appreciation, taken after the ceremony at St. Joseph Cathedral last Sunday, March 16th. Fr. John Leonard and I joined several dozen priests as Archbishop Coyne presented medals to 101 men and women from 75 parishes in the Archdiocese of Hartford.

The medal is given every year to members of the Archdiocese, nominated by every parish, in recognition of their contributions to their parish by volunteering their time and talents in many meaningful ways. We nominated Pamela for her years of dedicated service as a Lector at weekend and weekday Masses, Pastoral Care Outreach Minister of the Eucharist to the homebound, Spiritual Director, Catechist for multiple units of Servant Leadership formation's year-long courses, Care Minister assisting bereaved families at the time of a funeral, and Adult Faith Formation facilitator. We are most grateful for Pamela's very generous and multifaceted ministry for our faith community and we congratulate her on this honor.

Past honorees have included Marybeth Walsh, Americo Pace, Robert and Maryanne Midura, Sal and Karen Randazzo, Susan Ahearn, Marion Kingsbury, Jack and Helen Martins, Roberta Horton, Christian Heiden, Kim Nardone, Dan and Peg Lareau, Jack and Martha Murtaugh. Congratulations and thanks to all our medal honorees, and for all that you have done (and continue to do) for our parish!

Blessings on your week ahead!

Job Opening:

Director of Music Ministry, St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church
285 Church Street, Hartford, CT 06103 (spsact.org)

St. Patrick-St. Anthony Parish is a dynamic and growing community in the Archdiocese of Hartford, served by the Franciscan Friars (O.F.M.), and is known for its outstanding music program. Candidates must be able to incorporate a broad range of choral repertoire, directing three choirs, overseeing cantors, section leaders, an organ scholar, and the maintenance of the church's two pipe organs. This is a full-time position with health benefits and includes five weekend Masses, three choir rehearsals, and weekly staff meetings. Funerals and weddings provide additional compensation.

Desired background includes a Master's degree in music and/or equivalent experience, strong organ/piano skills, choral conducting expertise, and experience with Roman Catholic liturgy. The salary is negotiable - depending on skills and experience.

Application deadline: April 30, 2025; starting date is August 2025 or earlier.

For a full job description and application instructions, visit <https://bit.ly/spsa-dmm-job>.

Our Own Nazareth Time

Mondays, March 24, April 7 & 21, May 5 & 19, June 2 from 12:45-1:45 PM.

The City is My Monastery, A Contemporary Rule of Life, by Richard Carter is an unusual book; more like a guide to life that might become your life-time companion for prayer, peace and well-being. It gives us a practical "rule of life". Please purchase a book if needed.

Please attend as your schedule allows! Follow along and then join us for an in-person experience of spiritual practices which will inspire far beyond the end of the Easter Season.

We will read one chapter (one spiritual practice) over a two-week period. After the 12:05 Mass we will meet in the Franciscan Center to experience the exercises proposed. Beverages will be provided. Feel free to bring your lunch.

Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Naz-Time> to register.

Compassionate Care for Ourselves and Those We Love

The Parish Nurse Ministry team invites you to attend the last program in our Speaker Series on Monday, March 24, 2025 from 6:30 to 8:00 pm. This program, entitled Consumer Preferences Regarding Funerals, will be lead by Michael Klett and Janet D'Esopo Klett of D'Esopo Funeral Home and include Catholics' Interest in Cremations.

Please join us for what will be an educational and informational session that we can apply to our lives and the lives of our loved ones. We encourage you to join us on Zoom.

Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-PN-Series> to register and receive the Zoom link.

Holy Week & Easter - A Time for Healing Thursday, April 10 from 6:30-8:00 pm.

Jesus was a remarkable healer. For much of his public ministry, he was surrounded by human need. Crowds followed him wherever he went, pressing in on him, asking for healing. We too seek out this healer from Nazareth and long to encounter him. Join us for an Evening of Reflection on the cusp of Holy Week as together we reflect on how Jesus is still very much with us, healing and transforming us through his compassionate life, his saving death, and his glorious resurrection.

Presenter: Amy Ekeh

Suggested Offering: $15.00

Amy Ekeh is a Scripture instructor, retreat director and Associate Editor at Little Rock Scripture Study. Amy's work has been published in a variety of Catholic publications, including St. Anthony Messenger, Catechist Magazine, The Bible Today and Magnificat. Her latest book is Stretch Out Your Hand: Reflections on the Healing Ministry of Jesus. Amy is also the author of Come to Me, All of You: Stations of the Cross in the Voice of Christ, a 2024 Association of Catholic Publishers award-winner.

Letters from Prison: Continuing the Conversation

Community in Action Partners is one of the nation's oldest criminal justice organizations and provides restorative justice services to young people and adults, so they can reenter the community and thrive. They deliver impactful services that unite people, programs and partnerships to empower individuals to change their lives for the better, make communities safer and stronger, and enhance the quality of life across Connecticut. Prison Arts was established in 1978 and is the longest running program of its kind in the U.S. Prison Arts advocates for art, artists, and art-making in CT prisons. It organizes workshops, projects, and correspondence programming, as well as providing exhibition and publication opportunities. CPA Prison Arts artists are challenged to engage with their own creative journeys. The program has had a positive impact on the lives of both the incarcerated and the people they touch with their artwork: families, the general population, and targeted audiences. The goal is to encourage a greater understanding of the incarcerated and to build more empathy and love in the world.

This Clare Gallery exhibit includes new letters from this year's call for entries — highlighting "Mystery, Mysticism, and Meaning" — along with curated letters from the two prior exhibits in 1995 and 2005.

The combination of letters will continue the conversation of self-examination and self-esteem, once again bringing the talent and creativity of the prison population to the community at large.

Virtual Panel discussion, Monday, April 28, 7-8:30 PM : Jeffrey Greene, CPA Prison Arts Program Manager, will share insight into his 34+ years working with Prison Arts in various capacities. Panelist and alumni artist, Danny Killion, will share his creative journey — from prison to owner and operator of Weather Wood, a Troy, NY furniture and art store that has specialized in reclaimed wood pieces since 2013. The discussion will be moderated by Nancy Wynn.

Please go to <https://tinyurl.com/SPSA-Clare-Ltrs-2025> or scan the QR Code.

Artist's Reception will be held on Sunday, Sunday, May 4, 3-5 PM. The public is welcome to attend.

Seminarians and Priest Studying in Rome Thank Appeal Donors

Story by Shelley Wolf

Three men from the Archdiocese of Hartford, who are studying in Rome, are thanking the donors of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal for sponsoring their priestly education and for providing them with an international formation experience.

Thank you for your gifts," says Nicholas Chapman, "which make it possible for me to pursue the path I believe God is calling me on. This time in Rome has particularly stretched me and blessed me." Brendan Finnegan says, "My prayer is to be able to let these experiences form my heart so that I can be an effective servant of the Gospel to you and your family, for generations to come." ...

... "We are incredibly grateful for the support of the donors," says Father Gancarz. "May this time in the eternal city enrich our faith and priest-hoods, to be better ministers and servants to the faithful in the archdiocese and beyond. We pray for you!"
