The Pastor's Corner

November 2, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

This weekend and next, we step out of Ordinary Time for two special liturgical observances: All Souls Day and the Feast of the Dedication of St. John Lateran. These two days replace the 31st and 32nd Sundays in Ordinary Time.

The Solemnity of All Saints on November 1st, since it falls on a Saturday, is not a day of obligation this year. The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed on November 2nd is one of those dates in the liturgical calendar that supercedes a Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Like All Saints Day, All Souls Day is for remembering people who have died. But while All Saints Day is focused on Christian martyrs and saints, All Souls Day is all about the members of your own family and family tree. It's a day for being with family, visiting cemeteries, sharing memories of loved ones, and honoring traditions.

Sometime in the 10th century, the Catholic priest St. Odilo of Cluny instituted All Souls Day – a day to pray for the souls of deceased family members. The annual celebration became the final and third day of Allhallowtide – right after All Hallows' Eve (which became known as Halloween) and All Saints Day.

At St. Patrick-St. Anthony, we have several traditions to observe this day: the litany of names of the deceased in place of the Universal Prayer at all the weekend Masses closest to All Souls Day; the special Mass of Remembrance (which will be celebrated at the 5:00 PM Mass this year); and the lanterns in the Friary Gardens bearing the names of all the deceased members of our parish (and parishioners' family members) who died in the past year.

Last Sunday at the 10:00 AM Mass, the co-directors of the House of Bread, Beth Boyle and Tom Porell, joined us for the celebration of the 30th anniversary of our partnership. Along with myself as pastor, and Fr. Mike Johnson as director of the Franciscan Center, they signed a renewal agreement between our organizations to continue serving the people of Hartford who benefit from their services. Many parishioners of St. Patrick-St. Anthony who volunteer at the House of Bread were recognized during the Mass.

Next Saturday, November 8th, we will celebrate a Mass for the Anointing of the Sick at 11:00 AM. The friars and our parish nurses join with our brothers and sisters who are dealing with illness or the struggles of aging. Everyone is welcome to attend this Mass and join us in prayer for healing and strength through the ritual of the laying on of hands and anointing with holy oil.

As I mentioned earlier, next Sunday is the Feast of the Dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran in Rome. This ancient church, the cathedral church of the Pope as the bishop of Rome, was dedicated in the year 324 by Pope Sylvester I. The Lateran basilica also has a special Franciscan connection, but more on that next week.

Best wishes for a good week ahead!

Fr. Tim Shreenan, O.F.M.

Friends and Family Ministry: Monthly

Meeting: Sunday, November 16, 2025 at 3:30 PM in the Franciscan Center.

Please join us for one or both meetings. All are welcome. For more information Please go to <https://spsact.org/contact-form-for-open-hearts-ministry/> and a ministry member will reach out to you.

Our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS) on November 9, 2025, a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese.

The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. To learn more about the AMS, scan the QR code above or go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection.

Once again we will decorate our parish Christmas tree with photos of you and your family. If you've participated in previous years but would like to send a new photo, you can. Just make sure the resolution is high enough to print clearly. Email the photo to tshreenan@gmail.com.

Aramaic Lord's Prayer:

Tuesday, November 4 & 11; 6:30 - 7:45 PM

Come hear how Jesus would have prayed the Lord's Prayer in his native Aramaic. Experience the sounds as they resonate in the body and learn an accompanying body prayer. Explore what Aramaic scholars believe might have been the original meaning of the phrases as they unfold step by step to praise Sacred Reality, develop space in our consciousness for the Kingdom, ask to "let this happen", "give us", "forgive us", and then ground our hearts in intentionality and praise. Based on the work of Neil-Douglas Klotz, Ph.D., author of "Revelations of the Aramaic Jesus" and "Prayers of the Cosmos".

Clare Gallery New Exhibit

Our season of exhibits at the Clare Gallery focused on mystery, mysticism and meaning concludes with Portals and Paintings by Connecticut artist, Catherine Nogas-Steinberg.

Portals and Paintings is a series of acrylic and oil works in which the color and light reflected is believed to be transformative and healing. When creating, Steinberg starts with color, or shapes, from her dreams and visions. She then engages the creative process by working intuitively. The result is an image manifested with the energy gathered and layered with the formal elements and principles of design. Works are nonobjective, abstract paintings full of dynamic motion and feeling. Steinberg leads retreats and expressive arts workshops that intersect with her shamanic practice.

On Saturday, November 22nd, between 1-2:00 PM, the Gallery will host a "Personal Mandala Making" workshop. The workshop is $50 and limited to only 8 people. After the workshop, an Artist Talk and Reception is being held from 2:30-4:00 pm, which is open to the public. Additionally, there will be a Virtual Artist Talk on Monday, December 1st from 7-8:00 PM. Registration is required for the Mandala Workshop and The Virtual Artist Talk. See the Gallery website for registration – <https://spsact.org/clare2/>.
