The Pastor's Corner

October 26, 2025

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

In two of our readings this weekend we hear the words "righteous" or "righteousness." The first means being morally right, just or upright; it can also be used in a slang manner to mean excellent or genuine. As Grace, Mr. Rooney's secretary in "Ferris Bueller's Day Off," said of Ferris: "They think he's a righteous dude." There is also righteous indignation, which is anger that is considered to be justified, usually as a response to a perceived injustice.

Righteousness is a state or quality of being righteous, which can refer to a moral standard, or being in a right relationship with God. St. Paul, in his closing lines to Timothy, says: "From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day..." But doesn't Paul sound a bit self-righteous, a bit presumptuous? Even arrogant? Perhaps, but I think he was trying to encourage Timothy not to give up his efforts at spreading the Gospel, and those efforts were worth any suffering.

The Gospel today is the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector who both go to the temple to pray. However, they take drastically different postures and approaches to their prayers. One boasts of his accomplishments while the other beats his breast over his sins, begging God to be merciful.

As is often the case in parables, the characters are a bit exaggerated in order to make a point. Such is the case, I believe, in today's parable. It helps to maintain a healthy and realistic view of oneself. The Pharisee's intense pride and the tax collector's groveling penitence are not how God wishes us to see ourselves. Benjamin Franklin's take on self-perception is worth a read: "There is perhaps no one of our natural passions so hard to subdue as pride. Beat it down, stifle it, mortify it as much as one pleases, it is still alive. Even if I could conceive that I had completely overcome it, I should probably be proud of my humility."

Best wishes for a good week ahead!

RECEPTION FOLLOWING

Join us for a poignant Mass of Remembrance as we gather to honor and celebrate the lives of those who departed this year.

Once again we will decorate our parish Christmas tree with photos of you and your family. If you've participated in previous years but would like to send a new photo, you can. Just make sure the resolution is high enough to print clearly. Email the photo to tshreenan@gmail.com.

Our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS) on November 9, 2025, a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese.

The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. To learn more about the AMS, scan the QR code above or go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection.

THE DIGNITY INDEX

The Dignity Index 101: Thursdays, October 30 & November 6 & 13, attend either 12:45 - 2:15 PM OR 6:30 - 8:00 PM.

Dignity Index 101 is a 3-session program which will provide a forum where participants take an in-depth look at how to be part of building a culture of dignity in our lives, our community, and the political arena.

Have YOU experienced first-hand or witnessed within our culture, the use of language which divides us one from another? Perhaps within your school, workplace, community, or even our own country, you've seen up close the divisions created when people are treated harshly, sometimes with contempt.

One attempt to reverse this negative impact upon our lives involves adopting "The Dignity Index." Placing DIGNITY at the heart of our conversations, in-person or on social media, can be a choice to build back our humanity. Together let's make this CHOICE away from judgment and dehumanizing language. Let us respond to the CALL to a different way... one which affirms the humanity of all.

Tuesday, November 4 & 11; 6:30 - 7:45 PM

Come hear how Jesus would have prayed the Lord's Prayer in his native Aramaic. Experience the sounds as they resonate in the body and learn an accompanying body prayer. Explore what Aramaic scholars believe might have been the original meaning of the phrases as they unfold step by step to praise Sacred Reality, develop space in our consciousness for the Kingdom, ask to "let this happen", "give us", "forgive us", and then ground our hearts in intentionality and praise. Based on the work of Neil-Douglas Klotz, Ph.D., author of "Revelations of the Aramaic Jesus" and "Prayers of the Cosmos".

Clare Gallery New Exhibit

Our season of exhibits at the Clare Gallery focused on mystery, mysticism and meaning concludes with Portals and Paintings by Connecticut artist, Catherine Nogas-Steinberg.

Portals and Paintings is a series of acrylic and oil works in which the color and light reflected is believed to be transformative and healing. When creating, Steinberg starts with color, or shapes, from her dreams and visions. She then engages the creative process by working intuitively. The result is an image manifested with the energy gathered and layered with the formal elements and principles of design. Works are nonobjective, abstract paintings full of dynamic motion and feeling. Steinberg leads retreats and expressive arts workshops that intersect with her shamanic practice.

On Saturday, November 22nd, between 1-2:00 PM, the Gallery will host a "Personal Mandala Making" workshop. The workshop is $50 and limited to only 8 people. After the workshop, an Artist Talk and Reception is being held from 2:30-4:00 pm, which is open to the public. Additionally, there will be a Virtual Artist Talk on Monday, December 1st from 7-8:00PM. Registration is required for the Mandala Workshop and The Virtual Artist Talk. See the Gallery website for registration – <https://spsact.org/clare2/>.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION RETURNS TO HARTFORD

Catholic Academy of Hartford to open in fall of 2026.

Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne is fulfilling his promise on May 1, 2024 – his first day in office – to bring Catholic education back to the city of Hartford after a ten-year absence.

The city of Hartford has not had a Catholic school operating within its borders since St. Augustine School closed at the end of the 2015-2016 school year.

To end that drought, Archbishop Coyne announced during a press conference on Oct. 9 that the Archdiocese of Hartford has purchased a building on Asylum Avenue in Hartford, which it plans to open next fall as the Catholic Academy of Hartford.

"I simply could not accept that our state capital, and the geographic and spiritual center of our archdiocese, did not have a school to form our young people," Archbishop Coyne said.

For its opening year, the Catholic Academy of Hartford will initially welcome Hartford students in pre-kindergarten through the second grade. The longer-term plan for the new school is to add one grade each year, expanding up to the eighth grade.

"Within the walls you see behind me, future leaders and contributors will be formed – mind, body and spirit. With a quality, affordable education, their potential will prove limitless," the archbishop said.

The sale of the property, a former three-story office building at 765 Asylum Ave., was completed in September. The building is located behind the Cathedral of St. Joseph.

With the goal of beginning classes in the fall of 2026, the Archdiocese of Hartford plans to renovate the property, creating classrooms on the upper floors and a multi-purpose room in the basement. New exterior signage and a cross have already been erected.

"The opening of this school is representative of renewal, revival and a great reversal of the downward trends we experienced before and during COVID," Archbishop Coyne noted.

"Mass attendance is up, the number of men and women discerning vocations to the priesthood and religious life is up, and most important to today's announcement, Catholic school enrollment is up," he reported. In fact, the archbishop said, most archdiocesan schools have waiting lists.

"With the wind in our sails," Archbishop Coyne said, "the timing was right for the Archdiocese of Hartford to make a generational contribution to the city of Hartford for the education of its children."

During the press conference, Valerie Mara, superintendent of Catholic schools for the archdiocese, reiterated the archbishop's commitment to restoring Catholic education in Hartford through a "just tuition model" in which Hartford families would pay on a sliding scale, according to their ability to pay.

The hope is to extend the opportunity for a Catholic education to all families in the city at all income levels.

The school intends to serve Hartford residents first, Mara noted, regardless of their faith tradition or creed. "Our doors are open to any family that wants a Catholic education," she said.

Development initiatives and fundraising events for the Catholic Academy of Hartford are now underway. "I welcome with open arms civic leaders, benefactors and changemakers of any stripe who wish to be a part of this exciting endeavor," Archbishop Coyne said.
